Adults May Register On First Class Night

HICKSVILLE—Further registration for Adult Education classes will continue next week on the first night of each scheduled class, according to Elery Bean, program director. The snow storm on the scheduled registration nights, Monday and Tuesday of this week, while it failed to stop hundreds of applicants, has resulted in the continued registration.

There are openings in all classes, held Monday thru Thursday, except the following which are filled: oil burner repairs, fancy cookery, tailoring on Monday and oil painting on Wednesday. Bean also said there are three openings in driver training on Monday and Wednesday from 4 to 6 P.M. He will be at his office in the high school this Saturday morning, starting at 10 o'clock, for registrations.

And You Thought It Was Cold

NEW YORK — "B-r-r-r-r" was the comment by Michael T. Balus of 1 Walnut Lane, Hicksville, when he emerged from the icy Hudson River after diving in at 43rd St. here to retrieve a gold-painted wooden cross as part of a religious ceremony on Sunday, Jan. 10.

The 200 shivering spectators were members of the Hellenic Orthodox Church taking part in the annual observance of the Feast of the Epiphany. The ceremony was conducted by Magr. David Leonardis of the church, who released a dove into the air as Balus dove into the water.

In other years as many as 20 divers have taken the annual cold plunge into the river for the honor of recovering the cross which symbolizes the washing away of humanity's sins. This traditional ceremony has been observed locally for 34 years and dates back centuries.

The hardy Hicksville resident who is 26 years old brought the cross ashore on his first try. The event was recorded on news television programs.

Forecasts Democratic Victory In November

HICKSVILLE—Victory for the Democrats in the state of New York was forecast here Wednesday night by Lawrence McKeown, county party chairman, at the installation of officers of the Democratic Club in the Legion Hall. He cited the progress made by his party in the election last November in Nassau County and noted the significance of the Nassau GOP pluralities, now under attack, which in the past have "carried the state".

McKeown claimed that a study of the last election results in Nassau showed that 102 per cent of the Democratic enrollment voted, a record high for the nation. At the same time, 38 per cent of the enrolled Republicans voted. He also predicted that a Nassau resident will be on the State Democratic ticket this fall.

William A. Cislser was installed as club president. Other officers are: Carlton H. Bentley, 1st vice pres.; Craig Walsh, 2nd vice pres.; H. Stephen Freeman, treasurer; George Coburn, recording secy.; Arthur Isakson, financial secy.; and Peter Braglin, agt. at arms.

New homeowners in the Suburban Greens are Mr. and Mrs. WILLIAM CANNER, formerly of Great Neck, they now reside at 12 Tacoma Lane, Syosset. Interest in incorporation of larger hamlets in Nassau continues to grow. Elmont civic leaders have invited LAWRENCE A. ROMAN, chairman of the Hicksville Home Rule Committee, to speak at their civic rally at Gotham Ave. School on Jan. 20.

FREDERICK H. MICHAELIS was still Tuesday morning. He lives on Barnum Ave. and is beginning to feel like one of those people that P. T. said was born every minute. He shovelled his driveway out three times and each time the plow went by and filled it in again. He wishes that all that expensive equipment purchased with the taxpayers money had included a device that would remove that driveway entrance snow because once he does a job he likes to feel that it's done. . . . a feller can dream can't he? . . .

Local teen-agers wish that there was a place to ice skate in Hicksville. One said that if firemen could find a vacant lot which could be flooded with water and flooded with light at night, this kind of weather would bring healthful recreation and fun to many.

Organize Pre-School Group Here

The pre-school section of the Dutch Lane P-TA, the first group of its kind in Hicksville, will hold a pre-organizational meeting Tuesday, Jan. 19, at 8:15 P.M. in the kindergarten room of the Dutch Lane School. The program will feature a talk and discussion on "Meeting the Needs of Young Children" led by Miss Helen Rendall, kindergarten co-ordinator of School District 5.

The Pre-school section of a P-TA is a group of parents of pre-school children, who meet to discuss children's growth and development in the early years. The Pre-School Service Committee of the Dutch Lane School, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Jerome Karish, in instituting this section, is filling a great need in the community. In the past year, the Pre-School Service Committee set a policy which included: 1) personally delivering registration information to all families scheduled to register kindergartners for the next term; 2) assisting at registration time; 3) conducting a get-together following registration to welcome these parents, and give them a chance to meet informally the people who will be responsible for their children at school.

This year they wish to offer through the pre-school section an opportunity for parents of small children to hear specialists, to study and observe the development of the child from one to five.

Any P-TA may have a pre-school section, as any church or private group interested in young children may have its own pre-school P-TA.

Home Is Important

The most important place to take care of juvenile delinquency is the home, says Frank Warner who is executive secretary of the YMCA for Nassau and Suffolk counties. He believes that such youth organizations as the YMCA, CYO, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, and YBC are a valuable supplement to the home but they can never take its place. The basic foundation for good living and good citizenship must necessarily come from the home. With the firm foundation provided by the home, the YMCA, CYO, and other organizations can build good citizenship through wholesome group activities.

Folk Singer

Frank Warner is a delightful singer of American folk songs and he is very generous in bringing these songs to meetings of civic and service groups and similar organizations. All he asks in return is that his audience listen to a few words about what the YMCA can do for their children and how the Y is growing on Long Island. Frank captivated his audiences at a meeting last month of the Hicksville Kiwanis Club and more recently at a meeting of the East Meadow Levitt Home Owners Assoc. He charmed them with his informal program and impressed them with his ideas about youth activities.

The Y In Hicksville

The Y has already made its start in Hicksville. There is a very active Hi-Y Club for girls at the high school. The club is a positive force for good citizenship in both the school and the community. The girls are practicing good citizenship and they are influential in school activities.

We would like to see a similar Hi-Y Club for high school boys. We would like also to see the Y sponsor "Indian tribes" for little boys and their fathers, and little girls and their mothers. And we would like eventually to see a full-fledged YMCA active in Hicksville.

Room For All

Mr. Warner emphasizes that there is not only room for all youth organizations, but there is a definite need for all of them. A great many young people belong to no group at present and they should be members of some organized group catering to their needs for wholesome group activity.

The Legionnaire

Charles Wagner Post

No. 421, American Legion

Certainly by the time this column is read by our Legionnaires the news of last Saturday A.M.'s fire at the Post will be classified as ancient. We would like to comment, however, on the very prompt actions of Mr. and Mrs. Taylor in raising the alarm and also the rapid response of the Hicksville Fire Department who, at 3:30 in the morning, arrived so quickly and operated so efficiently that fire damage was held to a minimum with very little water damage evident.

Naturally operations at the Post have been curtailed considerably, but it is hoped that by the time Monday night's meeting rolls around things will be well on their way to normalcy.

First Vice-Commander Al Carpenter proudly reports that the 1954 membership has reached the one hundred mark (about 50 percent of the '53 list) with every indication thus far that we will go well over that '53 figure.

New members on the roll are Dominick Ardolina and Hugo Spadaro, while among the '54 renewals we find Rosario Molinari, Walter Coane, Bill Kuzinsky, Chet Jaworski (early this year Chet), Pete Karp, Paul Gerech, Al Barlow, Bill Thompson, Carl Sundstrom, Emanuel Halpert, Fred Gunther, Fred Turner and Ben Levitt.

To those who want pictures of the Legion Christmas Party and weren't on tap for the last meeting, better take our advice and place your name on the list that appears on the bulletin board. Pictures are 75 cents each and proceeds will be donated to the Legion sponsored Expiation Group by Jim Carter.

George Osborne, Tony Bell and Frank Governale have been appointed by Commander Walter Barnett to make a six months audit of the Legion's books in accordance with the by-laws.

Financial adjustments by the County, plus the cooperation of several organizations in Hicksville show that the Charles Wagner Post's first venture into Junior Legion Baseball was relatively inexpensive, amounting to just a few hundred dollars. Seems pretty reasonable to us. It permitted a number of boys to participate in the largest national amateur baseball contest in existence and resulted in a much coveted County Championship.

Got a kick out of Dear Jean's lead off last Friday—However, we think "Jean" is prone to exaggerate... There were a number of Christmas stockings left after the recent party and same were given to Clearys Oral School for the Deaf at Lake Ronkonkoma... Jay Jabon and Jim Carter have returned that repaired Legion sign to its proper place along the highway... Thank you letters received from Farmingdale and Nassau Tubercular for recent contributions... Interesting to note that the President, Secretary and Treasurer of the Police Boys Club in Hicksville are all active Legionnaires—yours truly, Rudy Bouse and Bill Bosch in that order... Remember that meeting Monday night!

Till then,

HILLSIDE TERRACE HAPPENINGS:

Snow Storm Delights Children

By BETTY MOGAVERO
Hicksville 4-9771

By now I guess everyone has dug themselves out of all this wonderful looking, but surprising snowfall. It's always heart-warming to see children of all ages enjoy themselves so much with snow, although all this grand whiteness might have been a little more timely during the Christmas holidays. We must say that the town wasted no time in sending through snowplows to clear the roads for cars.

A hello and welcome go to Mr. and Mrs. Rodecker of 113 Haverford Rd. who moved in from the Bronx the week of Jan. fourth with their 11 year old daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marchella were blessed with a 7 lb. 11 oz. son, born at Mercy Hospital Dec. 30, named Charles Jr.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barcelona of 218 Dartmouth Drive on Jan. 5 in Brunswick Hospital. The third child, he has been named Michael Joseph.

Baby June Marie Steinmetz made her first appearance on Dec. 20. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. George Steinmetz of Dartmouth Drive who are very happy as she is the first girl of four children. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Farone of Dartmouth Drive will be June Marie's Godparents at her christening at Our Lady of Mercy Church.

Ed Farone is gifted with the most beautiful voice. He sang "Ave Maria" at Our Lady of Mercy R.C. Church during the Christmas mass. Many people were wondering who sang so I am glad to pass the word along.

We're all happy to see Finn Hoff home from Copague Hospital where he recovered from pneumonia.

Happy Birthdays are in the offing for Tommy Carlucci who will be 11 on Jan. 24, Mrs. Trudy Arnold, Jan. 24; Bobby Hoops to be seven Jan. 26, and to Jean Archer who will be 10 on Jan. 15. Little Eric Louchein will be two on Jan. 17. He is the son of Jules and Pauline of Haverford Rd. Jules' brother and Pauline's brother have both just become engaged so will be celebrating too. I would like to add a little personal birthday greeting to Mrs. Lena Mogavero, Sam's mother, who is very dear to us and will be 49 on Jan. 14.

Martin Turkel of Wellfleet Lane had a birthday party Jan. 5. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. D'Angelo, Deborah Steinberg of Hunter Lane was three on Jan. 8.

Jerry Feldman of Hunter Lane will celebrate his birthday and he and Mrs. Feldman will also mark their seventh wedding anniversary Jan. 25. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rader will mark their 24th wedding anniversary Jan. 18. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Calucci will be married 12 years on Jan. 17 and Mr. and Mrs. John Marchetti will observe their sixth anniversary Jan. 18. Best wishes to you all.

Mrs. Eleanor Ullrich has asked me to tell you that Our Lady of Mercy Church has started its parish society with an ushers and Rosary meeting. The church is on So. Oyster Bay Rd. Ushers will meet the first Tuesday month and the Rosary Soc. the third Monday of each month.

The Jewish War Veterans Auxiliary will hold a card party Jan. 19 with everyone welcome. It will be held in Shaarei Zedek Temple, East Barclay St.

PLAIN-VUES: Ladies To Receive Communion

By RAE CANTILLI
The ladies of the Our Lady of Mercy R. C. Church had their first meeting on Jan. 7 at the Church to form the Rosary-Altar Sodality. The ladies are going to receive communion in a body on Feb. 7 at the 7:30 a.m. Mass. At the Feb. 15th meeting at the church at 8:30 p.m., nominations of officers will take place.

Plan To Build Jewish Center

PLAINVIEW—Members of the Jewish Center Board of Directors have made known that a binder has been placed on the purchase of an acre of land in Model Farms, located geographically in the center of Plainview, as a site for the erection of a future permanent House of Worship.

At present the group has been using a building donated by David Welts as a temporary place of worship. A committee headed by Norman Rosner has worked to improve the building and it is hoped that before long Sunday School classes may meet there.

A men's club is to be formed headed by Arthur Gussow of Heather Lane. Any information concerning the club may be obtained by contacting him. Information regarding new members may be secured from Robert Oppenheim, 4 Heather Lane, membership committee chairman.

Census Cards for Our Lady of Mercy R. C. Church can be obtained there anytime at all.
GALA CARD AND MAH JONG PARTY
The Sisterhood of the Plainview Jewish Community Center are running for their first fund raising affair, a gala card and mah jong party on Wednesday evening, Jan. 20 8:30 p.m. at the Manno Hill School.

Mrs. Irvin L. Lerner, Vice-President, announced that many valuable and lovely prizes will be given away. Mrs. Lerner and her Committee, have worked diligently on this affair to make it a huge success. The committee is as follows: Mrs. Sol Newborn, Mrs. S. Burman, Mrs. Jeanne Rosatta, Mrs. H. Rosenberg, Mrs. Isidore Tell, Mrs. Ed Picard, Mrs. Nat Mattson, Mrs. Norman Wicks, Mrs. John Clarke, Mrs. Irving Goldstein, and Mrs. Irwin Miller. Proceeds go toward the erection of a permanent Temple for the congregation of the Jewish Community Center. Refreshments will be served under the capable members of the Sisterhood. Information and details can be obtained by contacting Mrs. Nat Mattson at HI 3-5113. Donations of $1 and every one is more than welcome.

CHURCH OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD—LUTHERAN
The building of the new church is coming along fine. I hear tell it will be finished around March. Our little one started Sunday School this past Sunday. It was a big time in her life and yours truly.

Jaegle Was Born Here In 1861

PLAINVIEW — William C. Jaegle, who died on Jan. 5 in his 93rd year, was born in Hicksville on Oct. 1st, 1861, Parkway bridge, near Wantagh on a farm located on Old Country Road. He had been a charter member of the Plainview Volunteer Fire Dept. for 25 years and last Labor Day was in uniform for the annual parade. For the past four years he had taken part in the fireman's parade on Labor Day. He was one of the men who helped organize the fire company in Plainview.

He married Mary Elizabeth Davis of Plainview on June 25, 1890. He was a member of the engineering firm, Straumann Val, Inc., New York City, and invented many valves and mechanical devices which are still in use and great demand throughout the country. As an engineer, he had travelled through many states constructing and advising in the mechanical and hydraulic field.

From childhood he was a member of the Trinity Lutheran Church of Hicksville, his father having helped build the original church. He was beloved by all who knew him and was a devoted husband and a loving father.

Besides his widow, who survives him, he leaves one son, Ralph Davis Jaegle of the Bronx, and two daughters, Mrs. May S. Dauer of Babylon and Mrs. Olive MacKenzie of Plainview.

Funeral services from the Henry J. Stock Funeral Home were held Friday, Jan. 8 in Trinity Lutheran Church.

Members of Plainview Fire Dept. in uniform conducted services for him at Stock's and fire apparatus was provided as flower cars at the funeral.

Mrs. Jaegle took a leading role in the Hicksville Tercennial Celebration held in 1948.

To Elect on Jan. 21

HICKSVILLE—Officers will be elected Jan. 21 at the meeting of the Hicksville branch of the Nassau Hospital Auxiliary to be held at the home of Mrs. Elwood A. Curtis. Plans for the spring party will also be discussed.

Nominate Officers for Year

By DONOVAN R. BROWN
Hicksville 4-9125

Do you like good enlightening and stimulating discussions on timely problems within our development? This was what the first well attended meeting of the Millwood Gate Property Owners Assoc had to offer to its members. After much discussion pro and con on different items, the dues was settled at $2 per year starting with January 1954, with any extra money needed, to be raised by special functions. We had a brief resume on the garbage collection, but time did not permit further discussion. No new developments on the playground area were reported. The fire protection committee reported that we are scheduled to have three fire alarm boxes in the development.

At the February meeting, Councilman Frank A. Chlumsky will install the new officers of the association. After a speech on town affairs, he will answer questions of interest from the group. His specific topic has not been announced as of this date.

In order that the new officers may be installed at the February meeting, it was voted to hold a special election meeting on Tuesday evening, Jan. 19, at 8 o'clock in Shady Maple Hall. The following nominations for officers have been made.

For President: Martin Donlon, Thomas Killen, John F. Mulholland, and Thomas N. Murphy.

For Vice President: John Henn and Eugene Magee.

For Secretary: Harry G. Smith. For Financial Secretary: Ernest Bernard and James Cunningham.

For Treasurer: Martin Donlon and George Foster.

For Sergeant-at-Arms: Frank LeZak, Jack Henn, and Mrs.

Frank Soymanaki.

As time was flying by fast we voted that nominations for Board of Directors would be at the special meeting.

STREET LIGHTS

It is very gratifying to see that the Town of Oyster Bay is answering the pleas of our Civic Assoc to make our streets safe to walk along at night. On Saturday street lights were installed on Ferndale Drive and Fordham Road and started on Woodvine Drive North. May the rest of the development soon see the light go up and have them all brightly lighting our streets.

POLIO DRIVE

Mother, could you meet the costly expenses for treatment of polio if it struck your child this year? If you have had or know someone who has had polio, then you will know how heavy these costs are. Maybe you do not feel that you can even give much financially to this worthwhile charity this year but I am sure you could find a little time to give. Anyone or perhaps a group of two or three working together could give one evening and help collect from their neighbors. We would like to get one or two from each street in the development to volunteer their services. Will you please contact yours truly at 8 Greenbriar Lane or call Mrs. Thomas Beigin at HI 4-3850 who is chairman of the drive for the Hicksville area?

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Coleman of Fordham road entertained his parents from Cape May, New Jersey over the Holidays.

Birthday greetings go to Patricia Brittan of 18 Mayflower Drive who had a nice birthday party last week. Besides relatives Carol and Virginia Winkelman of 16 Mayflower drive and Greg Cooney of 10 Greenbriar Lane.

We are sorry to hear that 4 year old Nicholas Caruso of 2 Millwood Gate suffered a slight concussion from a fall. We hope his recover at home will be rapid.

Adults To Register Jan. 19 to 21

BETHPAGE.—New courses added to Adult Education Program here include controlled reading program, family life, and world affairs courses.

Registration dates for the Adult Education Program have been set at January 19, 20 and 21 in the cafeteria of the Broadway School from 8-10 P.M.

In addition to all the courses offered in the fall, cellar finishing will be given as a needed outgrowth of the already very popular attic finishing course.

For those desiring a better look at the international problems facing the world today, join with your friends and neighbors in registering for "Behind The Headlines" on Wednesday night. A series of 10 short films on the nations in the trouble spots of the world is sure to stimulate a lively discussion.

Mrs. Helen Reid, of Hicksville, who spoke at the November meeting of the P-T-A, will offer several topics for the urgent need of parents in her course entitled "Family Life". Her course will touch on discipline, adolescent fears and anxieties, the healthy personality, also with very pointed films used in college courses in child development.

For those parents and citizens who have become aware of the values of the controlled reading program as given to the pupils in the Bethpage School system, the "Reading Techniques" program will offer even more to adults. Mr. Zellman will answer questions and demonstrate the techniques in use on the reading machines. Take the time to test yourself and find ways to improve reading habits.

A complete listing of the courses for this registration:

MONDAY: Physical fitness for Women, Reading Techniques, Piano, Attic Finishing, Beginning English, Woodworking, Dressmaking, Speech Preparing, Photography.

TUESDAY: Ceramics, Upholstering, Family Life, Auto Maintenance, Physical fitness for Men, Attic Finishing, Fancy Cakes.

Estimate Vandals Caused $200 Damage To Schools

BETHPAGE.—Vandalism in the Bethpage School during the Christmas holidays resulted in the smashing of 29 windows, personal material stolen as well as a telephone, damage to school property in excess of $200 and the ruthless destruction of Christmas decorations, according to a letter from the School Board read at the monthly meeting of the PTA on Jan. 7. William Bientendi, PTA's representative on the school board, reported that this was only the last in a series of similar incidents throughout Bethpage. The acts were described as those of "thoughtless children of thoughtless parents."

Since the school board now finds it necessary to hire a full time night custodian and keep the school illuminated at a cost of some $5,000 a year, this damage will now begin to cost the taxpayers money, it was said.

"Lack of parental control of children" was ascribed as the main cause of such occurrences which included the nuisance of four fire alarms during the holiday season.

Change School Sessions Feb. 1

BETHPAGE.—Change of school sessions at both the Powell Ave. School and the Broadway School, grades kindergarten to sixth will go into effect Monday, Feb. 1, in accordance with the regulation passed by the Board of Education so as to give each child an opportunity to attend the session of his or her choice.

Letters informing parents of this change will be sent home on Jan. 25, while letters to parents of kindergarten children will be mailed. Those parents who fail to receive these notices should contact the school.

Mrs. Walter Baltrym of Bethpage was confined during the Christmas holidays to her home by pneumonia.

The Sportlight

By HOWARD FINNEGAN

Hicksville may be in line for the expanding program designed for the Nassau-Suffolk area by the YMCA. This of course would go a long way towards answering the need of the community for the establishment of a central, varied, consistent and interesting recreational scheme that would attract and serve a useful purpose for the greatest segment of the area.

But you would really be surprised to learn just how touchy a great many people from various groups become when anyone starts to push a Boy's Club for this town.

If ever the need for a coordinator of youth's activities was more underscored lately we can not think of a better example than Friday night.

Hicksville High school was playing Farmingdale in a basketball game at the gym but the Teen Canteen had a dance scheduled for the same night.

Of course everyone is trying to do their best in their own way, but such a conflict merely overbalances the activities that we present for the youth.

Athletic Director Chet Jaworski hasn't said a word about it to us, but it looks like Hicksville High will play its varsity basketball games in the new Woodland Ave. grade school next season.

There will not be very much room to seat fans but the playing area will be greatly improved over the present gym which was actually behind the times 20 years ago.

Hicksville High travels to Westbury and is nothing more than a one point favorite to score its seventh straight win over the Green Wave. The hosts, of course, are stung by that string of Comet victories and will have the emotional fervor to see it broke. They almost did it last season before bowing by one point and the 13-12 furor on the gridiron last fall indicates that Westbury still cherishes a victory over the Orange and Black.

That was quite a rally the PEC Alumni turned on in the fourth quarter, Monday night, to defeat Lincoln House of Glen Cove 63-51. It took the Blue and Yellow three periods to register 30 points and the tally was in favor of the visitors 39-30 as the last ten minutes started.

Realizing they were acting far from the part of defending champions John Econopoulis, Stan Kellner, Gary Puccio, Dick McCarthy and recent addition Ted Schwarting socked in ten points inside of 90 seconds and just kept rolling past the gasping losers.

The return from service of Schwarting is applauded loudly in Alumni circles and now there is talk that the titans from West Hempstead might have a harder fight entering the throne room than they expect.

The bid to have a big brewery keep Hicksville in the major softball business just never quite came to a head. There are many other faucets that can be pulled down but the softball boys are finding that all of them do not have enough money on tap interested in paying a pitcher.

NORTH WEST NOTES: First Record Player At School

By JAMES CUMMINGS

The Neighborhood Record Fund Committee turned over the first of three phonographs to the Burns Ave. School this week, reports Kurt Maler, chairman. Volunteer workers are now in the process of constructing the second 3-speed phonograph and hope to have it ready within a month.

Members of the North West Civic Assoc. had occasion to see the first completed phonograph at their last monthly meeting, Jan. 5. As your reporter explained at that meeting that this was strictly on a volunteer basis and that funds collected amounted to $50.00, half of the $100 goal set by the committee, other donations would be accepted.

On behalf of the committee, I would like to thank all who donated at the meeting, the final total was $11.06. All the monies collected served as payment for needed parts and the balance in the fund will go toward the purchase of record albums for the children attending Burns Ave. School.

If you parents have not seen this phonograph as yet, inquire at Burns Ave., see the work of these very generous people who gave their time to complete this beautiful piece of equipment. If you have not made a donation to the fund, drop it off at the Herald office, next to the Post Office, or mail it to 68 Myers Ave., care of the committee, my residence.

Volunteer Job Is Not Very Easy

By MAY MALJEAN
Hicksville 3-5515

We have received some response from a request in our last column for help for the Mothers March on Polio. We are reminding people again to be courteous to these volunteers. The abuse that these women and some men too, must take to help the unfortunate is very discouraging. Because of this volunteers are difficult to get. If you don't want to contribute, just say so, but don't pick an argument with the representative. These people do this work because, as altruists they want to help and I say we should be thankful. I don't think they want thanks, but we can not thank them enough and the many wonderful people who contribute financially. Those who responded to the request for help include: Mrs. Frapp of Fulton Ave., Hicksville; Mrs. Steyer of Fulton Ave., both from Woodbury Gardena, and Mrs. E. Petrus of 207 Princess Ave., in the Jerry Spigal homes. Mrs. Bier of Haverford Rd. is captain of the drive in Hillside Terrace with Mrs. Nurenberg of Haverford Rd., assisting.

George and Cliff have turned in three cans for the drive. Lewis Cicanelli, builder of True Value homes, sent in a check and the builders of Hillside Terrace, Mr. Carillo, Mr. Levin and Mr. Wanes, sent in contributions that were all greatly appreciated.

FLASH FIRE

Catherine Voost of 34 Washington Ave., and Mike Green of 9 Sleepy Lane called to tell that a fire that would have caused considerable damage was recently put out by Mike Zimmerman and Ronald MacLeod with the assistance of their wives. The fire was caused, it was said, by children burning Christmas trees, and was put out by the use of boards. The men suffered slight burns on their legs and arms. The Zimmermans live at 33 Sleepy Lane and the MacLeods at 81 Kansas St.

Divide Cubs Into Two Packs

HICKSVILLE—Beautiful color slides were shown at the Cub Scout meeting in the Methodist Church, Old Country Rd. at Nelson Ave., Thursday evening, Jan. 7.

Cubmaster of Pack 64, Allen S. Carpenter announced to the 90 Cub Scouts and approximately 75 parents and adult scouts that the next meeting would be in two groups instead of one. The pack has grown so large that games and other activities have had to be curtailed. With two groups these activities can be resumed.

The second group will be led by the assistant cubmaster of pack 64, Fred Hamilton of East Ave., Hicksville. The Cub Pack Committee will continue to function as one group as in the past with John Ehnann of Waters Ave. as the chairman.

The colored slides were of last year's Boy Scout Fund drive with all the fathers and sons from Pack 64 who participated in the pictures. Cub Scout picnic pictures of 1949 through 1953 were also shown and slides of the Cub Pack Committee's annual dinners, which recalled a lot of fond memories.

The dinner this year will be held in February. Invited are all the fathers and mothers who participated in the 1954 Fund Drive, the pack committee and Den Mothers. The picture part of the program ended with 15 colored slides of the arrival of Hicksville's "Airplane Riding Santa Claus." All the pictures were taken and shown by George Groe of Ninth Ave., Hicksville, Cub Pack 64 institutional representative.
