

Kiwanians Attitude on Parking

The Editor of the Centre Island News... When the cat is away the mice will play... What could be more unfortunate than a series of "open" roads with recriminations on both sides...

The merchants of Hicksville have clamored for relief years but no group of businessmen and no organization got as far as Kiwanis did in actually making a free parking field... Any well-informed person must admit that the Kiwanian parking field is a definite improvement in the right direction...

The 90-minute parking ordinance was passed by our Board at the request of the merchants working through the Hicksville Chamber of Commerce... Now that there is a free parking field we Kiwanians need any legitimate reason why double parking is not and why the 90 minute parking ordinance is not needed...

Cippings from your paper will attest to the fact that Councilman has promised to have the ordinance enacted... And speaking as an individual, and not as a Kiwanian, I believe it has increased them as it has reduced amount of available parking space...

WALTER F. STILLGER, M. D. President of Hicksville Kiwanis Club

How About These Weeds?

It's tough enough to drive on the highways today with cars operated by persons of varying ability without having the safe operation of the car hampered by outside influences... There are several spots in this vicinity where the heavy rains have caused weeds and other plants to assume large proportions... We refer to the growth of weeds at the corner of Woodbury road and Bay avenue...

A Big Job Well-Handled

August P. Deppisch, after 17 years of service to the people of Hicksville as a member of the board of water commissioners of the Hicksville district, is keeping a new member term as a member of the commission when the voters of the district vote at the courthouse Tuesday night between the hours of 7 and 9 p. m.

Mr. Deppisch is to be congratulated on his excellent record in office. His membership on the commission is so much to enhance the efficient operation of the district on a strictly businesslike basis. It is with regret that the people of the district learn of his intention not to run for another term.

People seldom realize the importance of a well-operated and expertly operated water district. And yet it perhaps the most important service because above all other things, water is a vital necessity to life. True, education is very important and so is fire protection and other public services, but without a steady, unflinching supply of fresh, clear water, life would be impossible.

Last Chance At Opportunity

News is being placed in homes of representative citizens throughout Nassau County, is serving as a mighty advertisement of the papers merit, and should make subscription getting easy from now until the close of the campaign.

Anybody's Race
So evenly matched are candidates in the Opportunity Club Campaign, race is extremely close. Comparatively few votes separate the leaders from those who do not show quite so high vote standings. Just think what a few five-year subscriptions would do for anyone! At the same time candidates should not miss obtaining every single year's subscription possible, too. As close as the race now stands a very few subscriptions might mean the difference between winning the $250.00 Capital Prize, or being satisfied with a small award.

A word to the wise—work with might and main from now until next Wednesday night, make every hour count double. There will POSITIVELY be no other time during the remaining weeks of the campaign when subscriptions will count for as many votes as they do up to 6 P. M. next Wednesday.

Garden City Set As Location For Annual Session

The Garden City Hotel will be the scene of this year's convention of the Young Men's Christian Association of Nassau County, according to an announcement made last night by Evelyn A. Furey of Merrick, president of the Nassau County Y. M. C. A. The annual session of the Nassau County Y. M. C. A. will be held at the Garden City Hotel from August 27 and on the following afternoon, while the dances, which will climax the two gatherings on October 8 will be held in the ballroom. The work of the resolutions committee has been progressing under the leadership of Herman J. Hebert, Jr. of Roslyn and it is expected that the Constitutional Convention and the Democratic State Convention, which will be held just prior to the Nassau county fair, will provide plenty of issues to be discussed.

Tire Accidents Frequent Now Says Commissioner

In furthering the State's half-completed campaign for safe summer driving, Motor Vehicle Commissioner Charles A. Harnett today urged motorists to become "personal safety" investors in their cars. Since the average car is in virtually constant use during the summer months, Commissioner Harnett believes inspection by the owner would result in the immediate detection of any weakness such as worn tires or faulty brakes and forestall the possibility of accidents due to such defects.

Taking for example, accidents resulting from blowouts, Commissioner Harnett stated that the majority of "tire" accidents take place between June and October due to burning roads and the tremendous heat generated by high temperatures.

The Wednesday eve. The hour of "dead line" is making up with remarkable alacrity. The editor is deep in thought as he sits over desk and bellows out his orders. Night and commands at his intervals. Right to go on last month's "puzzle"; however, he now strike up, may yours truly will the things of the week right up to your office. So it's attention! Right now!

BIG HEAR OR HEAR BIG
Glen Gossett the gent of the bar is giving much consideration and thought as to whether or not the teaching of Indian sign language would be profitable. The whole thing started when Glenn business and what with mingling with the Indians and the like he picked up a very good working knowledge of the language; in fact, he would have to have it that he does better with it than English.

WHAT NEXT?
Phil, the bartender out in Huntington Hills (Huntington Terrace) is all of a flutter and agog. One of his local youths is surely straddling in with some of his pipe and glass of milk. He also asked if it wouldn't be too much trouble if he had some to turn all the gin bottles around as he was trying to forget.

JUST A THOUGHT
Wonder if fishing is a Presidential sport or a political obligation?

P. G. COURSE?
Yours truly had the occasion to be present at a house-brawl (or should we be more dignified and call it a hand party?) last Saturday night and believe it or not the miracle of ages happened. There was a school teacher there that really had a sense of humor. Ah, me, what a ball game. I wish all those kids having her for a teacher and ten chances to nine they really don't appreciate it. One of the "English" (of all things), I still found conversation with her wasn't entirely out of the question. My friend (and I) were in the vicinity of Glen Cove and sign up for a post graduate course, and by the way, if you don't think I'd enjoy staying after school then call the subject as I imagine you and sign up with the Nether School of Romance!

VISITING FRIENDS
Much humor has been written about visiting friends and their capers; in fact, authors have gone in the point of dishwashing of the subject so I imagine if you are one of the local lads on your lastest venture up-state wouldn't be looked to harshly upon. Here is how you like it—One of the best cappers pulled on the sojourn was the following incident. When being forbidden to use the sink to wash his hands (the Mayor's) out at the Nassau county inn, he patted up and down the bigwigs and byways with the fingers, long for old glory and strut and later amused themselves

HIT VS. SOFT BALL
The soft ball game between Pats and Harry (and I) of the Hickville fire department was a hot one to be remembered, why? The old man of the creek (No. 3) enjoyed all the spoils of victory in the first round of the game. With No. 2, it seems the Mitt Wagner really won the game for the old man by playing on the "outside" team. It sounds like a "pleating" but when the boys of the department explain that their biggest problem was not the contest with the old fellows but the problem of whether it would be easier to jump over Wagner or jump around him. Ed note—After your careful study of the matter just reported, you the lad would save much time.

LET'S ALL TALK TOO BAD
We were very sorry but the letters for the Fence will have to be held over till next week at which time much space will be devoted to romance problems with Aunt Hester daling out justice and our other correspondence. So—until next week, Don't be good—Be careful! Bye Now—

Fair Director Announces List Of $3,000 in Prizes
Silas H. Andrew has just issued the special premium list for the 60th annual poultry show at the Nassau County Fair, September 27-29. The list of 16 pages showing the distribution of $3,000 in prizes, along with six trophies, four medals, 61 ribbons, and 32 alluvial cups. Despite the late issuance of the premium list, applications for display are expected to be so heavy that the entries will be closed on September 25, one week ahead of the closing of entries for all other exhibits. The Mincola Fair poultry exhibition is second only to the New York City annual show, the Mincola show being the most difficult one in which to win prizes, and the birds accepted there being considered ready for export to New York. Two of the trophies most valued by fanciers are the president's cup, awarded by J. Alfred Valentine, and the vice-president's cup, awarded by Edwin P. Roe, for the best bird in the English class. There are also 25 cups offered by the United Pigeon fanciers Club. So large is the premium list that it covers that this department, also, will have a special list.

H. H. Campbell, of the Farm Bureau, announces two novelties for the Fair for the gentlemen farmers and professional. Fred Jones, of the State Bureau of Agriculture, will exhibit methods and devices for determining the quality of eggs and will demonstrate how to use a new method of waxing fruits and vegetables to preserve them for marketing until prices by building a high bon fire in the middle of the road. The truck of the town came over and halted it over with the boys and it was decided that the street would be cleared and the fire in its natural beauty. In the middle of the clean up process the state proceeded to get the boys and a war-battle with one of the boys. Needless to say he was in no mood to say one else. One good word led to another which was finally capped with a right to the jaw. A fireman on receiving the Chief of police stepped and lived, and stopped it and also informed the trooper he was out of order. The trooper was to be his way. The boys were just having "fun".

DISTANT LENDS ENLIGHTENMENT
Irene Pierce of this town is all of a twitter and things—The cause of it all being a letter from one of Uncle Sam's guardians of the sea. It was a letter from (Bossy) Nelson grasped a pen and paper and dashed off a letter to the little Nell that was just full of things and stuff. (And miss with thinking all the time he was illiterate.)

COMPLIMENTS TO YOU, SIR
Although on many occasions we have been tempted to give a gentle rib or a slight slam to the Hamilton on the high and mighty fashion in which he struts about in his brass buttons, but we saw something Wednesday night that makes him of the all right sort. An obsequy had been patiently waiting to weave his way thru the traffic of the others at Broadway, and Marie staid of a ball game. The married copper happened to come along. Freely off duty as he had his own car, he stopped and held up the speeding car and mother could make a sewerage. You can say what you like but I think it was a courtesy that all too few drivers show age.

THE PHOENIX STOCK
The outlook for pheasants in New York is the best in two years. Not only has the stock of wild birds increased since the low point of 1936, but nearly 100,000 birds will probably be liberated before the opening of the season and it is expected that the cooperation of sportsmen's clubs and the New York State Conservation Council, according to C. Monroe Dalley, secretary of the Council.

THE PHOENIX STOCK
The pheasant stock, which in 1936 was reduced to its lowest point in years by causes which it is not possible to determine, has grown steadily and is now being helped by the members of the Council to be adequate to produce a much better crop of pheasants this fall. This has been substantiated by reports of favorable nesting and bird counts. "Many of the organizations affiliated with the Council have helped the recovery greatly by joining in pheasant rearing projects in cooperation with the Conservation Department. They have built brooder houses and have been able to bring a large percentage of their birds to the liberation age. The release of these birds, plus the usual stocking from the State Game Farm, is the anticipated liberation of nearly 100,000 birds before the opening of the hunting season this year." The fact that the majority of the re-stocking activities of the Conservation Department is taken annually from sportsmen's license fees is a policy under which cooperation of "wild life" is entering in.

Feature Films at the Theatres

You and Me Starts Week at Playhouse

A powerful drama of paroled ex-convicts and the parole rule that forbids them to marry, comes to the playhouse in "You and Me," the new Sylvia Sidney, George Raft film.

Featured in the excellent supporting cast to which is married to the new film are Florence Karna, George E. Stone, Warren Hyland, and Barton MacLane.

It is a suspenseful romance between Miss Rogers, as a hard-working little stenographer and Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., as an ambitious but penniless law student who has taken a job as a waiter at the camp.

Supporting the two principals is a brilliant cast, and one of the largest of any recent picture. Peggy Conklin, noted stage and screen favorite, has the role of Miss Rogers' girl friend at the camp.

BRAVED JUNGLE PERILS TWO MARINE CORPS aviators were dead and three had been lost in the tropical jungle of Nicaragua, where amid the tangled undergrowth the grass is often fifteen feet high and sunshine is blocked out by trees which grow to a height of 100 feet.

The three living marines had been forced to take out of their plane when buffeted by a tropical rain storm in the middle of the night on the morning of 1932. Two other flyers lost their lives while attempting to drop supplies to Sergeant Theodore M. Brown, a marine who had been stranded on the Rama River. All were victims of perilous flying conditions above the wooded wilderness of Central America.

The marine sergeant and his men immediately recovered the bodies of the dead flyers and brought them back to Rama, some forty miles away, by a trail of hand-carried supplies.

During their jungle trek the searchers were forced to brave the danger of an bushes, fies and snakes. While a second searcher, a freckle-faced flyer or throwing their way through the almost impenetrable jungle, from far overhead directed the rest by dropping food and written instructions from their planes.

Only brief accounts of his courageous feat were available to the world until the story of his bravery and fortitude in the tropical jungle was for Stephenson the Nicaraguan cross of valor.

STREAMLINING THE OL' BUS

Looking Forward By Franklyn Waltman

In view of recent events there can be little doubt that a determined effort is and will be made to renominate President Roosevelt for a third term.

For instance, it is clear that the New Deal is fighting in a number of State primaries this year in order to control the delegations from those States in 1940.

It is not so clear that the President in effect would permit his denunciation by an actual minority of the delegates.

But he will never be reelected for a third term, emergency or no emergency. In the first place this cry of "emergency" has been overdone and the country is a little tired of it.

Somehow all this talk about a third term and Mr. Roosevelt's Democratic purge, especially in Georgia, recalls to mind a passage in Plutarch's Republic where the great Greek philosopher is describing a tyrant, which is the classic term for dictator.

The people have always some champion whom they set over them and nurse into greatness, said Plato. "This and on which a tyrant is raised, who he first appears above ground he is a protector."

"At first, in the early days of his power, he is full of smiles, and he salutes everyone whom he meets, he is to be called a tyrant, who is making promises in public and also in private: liberating debtors and distributing land to the people and his followers, and wanting to be so kind and good to everyone!"

"Has he not also another object, which is that he may be impoverished by payment of taxes, and thus compelled to devote themselves to their daily wants and that he is likely to conspire against him?"

"And if any of them are suspected by him of having notions of freedom, and of resistance to his authority, he will have a good pretext for destroying them by placing them at the mercy of the enemy; and for all these reasons the tyrant must be always getting up a war."

"Now he begins to grow unpopular. Then some of those who joined in setting him up and who are in power, speak their minds to him, and he, in another and more courageous of them cast in his teeth what is being done. He is the enemy of them all, all must seek occasion against them whether he will or no, until he has made a purgation of the State."

So wrote Plato almost four hundred years before the Christian era began.

LOW DOWN From Hickory Grove

ONCE IN A WHILE I mosey out to the Coast, and when I do I always go to hear a young feller there—his name is Alabama—and he has a knack of what you up, that gets you.

Last Sunday he was tellin' about science, and what might be worked out to increase our average life of 40 years, and is now, to 70.

And medicine and science, he says, don't are nuckin' religion or vice versa. While science, it is findin' ways to produce life, it also is findin' ways of extending the human race—like poison gas and such.

So when you leave the church, you don't have the answer to everything, or anything, and are even confused. The harder you are liable to kinda holler, wonder to yourself, on the way home—what is next, after 70.

And you will maybe be a little uncomfortable, and if you are, maybe you can sit down and do some ponderin'.

There's a preacher who can make a person feel he is settin' some place—lookin' at the stuff in his mind, on special, and everything, and the undertaker never gettin' him off.

Yours, with the low down, JO SERRA

From the Sidelines

By BERNARD F. MCGUNNIGLE

THE SECOND HALF of the Nassau-Suffolk Baseball Loop has suddenly developed into a real scrap as five teams are battling almost neck and neck for the title.

The sudden fallop of Syosset has been the chief reason for the teams to hunch themselves together as the season starts down the last stretch. Successful defuncts are Hicksville and the Huntington Braves have knocked the Maroons out of first place and now they are forced to contend with a tie with the Pirates for first. The Braves trail in third place, a half-game back and Hicksville and the Bethpage clubs follow in that order, each being separated by a half-game from the team in front of them.

In other words, the fifth place Bethpage team is at a game and a half from the league leader. Hicksville has a fine chance as they have four games remaining to be played and three of these are tie games that they have beaten all year. Two games remain with Farmingdale and one each with the Pirates and Braves.

Moreover, the Pirates and Syosset must meet in two games and this short series will undoubtedly kill one of the teams pennant chances.

Hicksville presented a well-balanced attack on Sunday last. Ronnie Cerullo as they blasted out twelve hits, four of which went for extra bases. If the boys continue hitting they are, the Hicksville club may soar up to the top by close of the schedule. But, while the attack has been continuing well, the defense keenly misses the veteran stopper, Herb Small. Sig Moroske hasn't been going too well behind the plate and it was his letdown last week that most allowed the Pagites to snatch that contest from Hicksville.

While the baseball season has been running at its best peak, the football fever is gradually creeping upon Hicksville residents as the Football Club prepares for toughest grid schedule in the history of the club.

Low Milleville has been working his boys out each week morning upon the high school turf and will soon have the players in tip-top shape for the opener with Cedarhurst, slated for September 18.

In a recent tele-tele with Low, your humble columnist gleaned the idea that the 1938 grid machine will be equally as strong as the former Hicksville teams and that the Black and White would be a serious contender for the 1938 Semi-Pro crown. Hicksville has lost several members of the 1937 club but with a like number of newcomers reporting for these open positions, the outlook is very good. However, the "little one" has lost two of his best running backs, namely, Orest Milleville and Dom Pellicio, and may take a little trouble in locating ball-toters to fill these openings. The new backs, Hayden, Zaima and Figuraturo, to mention a few, are rated as fast-moving backs but whether they can replace the above two remains to be seen.

The line will almost be the same although the Kuhno and Pro have not reported. Fred Flicker may prove to be a valuable aid in the aerial attacks as Flicker has a tremendous reach and with his ability to climb and spear the pigskin, the passing Hicksville backs will have a real target to shoot at. Frank Pubins and Ben Wright are fine receivers and with another capable passer, Low is well-stocked with ends.

SOFTBALL REMINISCENCES—

The softball race is all over today following last night's finale between the Boscos and the Cubs. We do not know the final standing as this column went to press prior to game time, but we know that the race is over with the Braves as the 1938 champion.

If the Boscos won last night, they finished second and the Knights are third. However, if the Cubs upset the Knights, the Boscos will conclude the season as a deadlock for the runner-up spot. The Scouts, Cubs, and Veterans finish in that order.

The race was a slightly interesting affair all the way through and considering that this is the first year that Hicksville sponsored a softball loop, the interest evinced by the fans was quite gratifying.

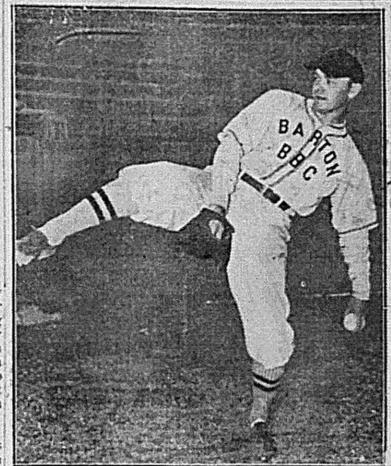

Before giving up on softball for the 1938 season, I wish to state some of the outstanding achievements or developments of the year.

- BEST PITCHER—Fred Miller.
- WORST PITCHER—Fred Habernicht.
- BEST HITTER—Ed Beneke.
- WORST HITTER—Harry Guckenberger.
- BEST INFIELDER—Lou Kappsstatter.
- BEST OUTFIELDER—Tony Kluepfel.
- BEST PLAY—Kappsstatter's back-hand catch in third base game won by Vamps 7-1.
- FINEST PLAY—Jud Snyder's a la Babe Herman hit in Vet. outfield.
- PEPPIEST PLAYER—Alec 'Rabbit' Kishanuk.
- SLOWEST PLAYER—Gene Callaghan.
- ALL-AROUND PLAYER—Little Wink (He played in almost every club in the circuit).
- MOST SURPRISING PLAYER—Roy Cogan.
- FINEST PITCHER—George Spinner.
- MOST VALUABLE PLAYER—Fred Miller.

HICKSVILLE NINE STOPS BETHPAGE CLUB, 5-4

EDDIE ZITEK

One of the mainstays of the mound staff for Jim Barton's Nighthawks, Zitek has turned in several brilliant performances this year and is one of the main reasons for the great success of the Nighthawk association. The former Queens intercollegiate star has a burning fast ball and has been moving down the opposing batters with impressive regularity.

Hawks Meet Colored Giants Under Lights

One of the leading Negro clubs in semi-pro baseball, the Brooklyn Royal Colored Giants, will provide the opposition for Jim Barton's team tonight as the Nighthawks again swing into action under the lights at New Hyde Park.

The Royals are rated as one of the strongest traveling combinations in the section and had victories over practically every club in the Metropolitan association. They beat Cedarhurst several weeks ago and should give the Hawks plenty in the way of opposition.

The ever-attentive House of David, will be outstanding during the game in semi-pro baseball, return again to Barton's Stadium Sunday night. The Hawks have beaten the Bearded Club three times this year but the show that the House stages during the game has never failed to draw a capacity crowd. Jimmy Woods, Red Ramsey and Moose Swamy, just among others, have become a favorite with the local fans for they not only put on a good exhibition on the field, but is a riot of comedy during innings.

Open With Cedarhurst. "Charmen Milleville, the manager, announced that the open date of September 18 has been filled by a game with Cedarhurst. Cedarhurst has always given the locals hard battles and the opener for the current season will likewise be no setup.

Polo Fans See Bostwick Game

The Bostwick Field polo fans will see E. W. Hopping's Roslyn four, cross mallets with J. C. (Cocle) Rathbone's Banders at the Jericho Turnpike field, Sunday. The Roslyn side will ride with E. W. Hopping, J. P. Grace, Jr., E. A. Hopping, and John M. Schirr at back. The Banders will have G. S. Smith, supported by Seymour Knox, Robert Strawbridge, Jr. and "Cocle" Rathbone riding in that order. The game will start at 3:30 p. m.

DOUBLE HEADER

The N. Y. Yankees will play the Cleveland Indians a double heading baseball game today and tomorrow, August 26 and 27, at the Yankee Stadium.

Football Club Has Dearth Of Running Backs

The Hicksville Football club resumes its weekly workouts on Sunday afternoon at the local high school grounds as Low Milleville continues his preparations for the 1938 season.

Milleville is quite optimistic about the team's chances despite the dearth of several of the 1937 stars. The diminutive Hicksville mentor stated that perhaps the chief difficulty will be in finding a few capable ball carriers to support Harold Mayer.

Since he lost Dom Pellicio and Orest Milleville, the mid-sized mentor finds himself with a long list of blocking backs but few ball-carriers. However, Paul Figuraturo, the southpaw artist and Lou Zaima and Bob Hayden among the newcomers and these were quite effective in carrying the mail in their scholastic days and they may fill in the openings.

Open With Cedarhurst. "Charmen Milleville, the manager, announced that the open date of September 18 has been filled by a game with Cedarhurst. Cedarhurst has always given the locals hard battles and the opener for the current season will likewise be no setup.

EQUAL MEN'S RECORD

The second year in succession co-ed athletic teams at Hofstra College had the same percentage of victories as the College's male varsity teams. R. Burr Smith, director of athletics reported in his annual report to Dean Arthur D. Whitman, made public today.

Reporting on the last year's records of all teams which carried the blue and orange into intercollegiate competition, Mr. Smith stated that the women won fifteen of their 23 contests in four sports for a percentage of 65.0, and the men won 27 and tied one of their 48 contests for a similar percentage. In 1936-1937 the men and women tied at 50.0.

Seeking 3rd Win

Mid-Islanders Heavy Favorites To Trip Dalers At Hicksville

The Hicksville Field club will try to stretch their current winning streak to three Sunday afternoon when they play hosts to the hapless Farmingdale club at Recreation Field, Hicksville.

On the basis of their past performance, the Mid-Islanders will be heavy favorites to trip Gene Leyensacker's charges. Hicks will beat the Dalers twice this season, once in an eleven inning fray and then in a 12-6 contest at Hicksville.

An old Hicksville favorite, Charles Molitor, will be on the mound for the visiting aggregation while John Hogan will check for Hicksville. Molitor, who left Hicksville in May, pitched against his ex-teammates on July 4th for Carle Place but was batted out in the seventh inning. The hedge endeavor will be out to average that lacking and the Dalers are confident of taking the Valentines over the hurdle.

Pirates Favored

The Huntington Pirates are slight favorites to make it three straight over Syosset when the two clubs clash at Summers Field. The Ducs scored 10-2 and 6-5 wins over the Maroons and with Magnuson on the mound, may make it three.

Magnuson has pitched in but two games for the Pirates but in both contests he turned in shut-outs. He blanked the Braves 6-0 and then repeated over Farmingdale last week's team score. Mike Bonazza will probably be his starting opponent.

Bethpage travels to Hicksville's Park to meet the Braves in the third game of the day and the home club has been installed as slight favorites. Impenetrability of the willow has been the chief drawback for the Braves and Colby Jones of the Braves should continue his magic spell over the Reds. Devis, Elmer Ronnie or Walter Cerullo will try to rubber for the visiting Pagites.

Revolver Shoot Opens Saturday At Pt. Washington

Colonel C. W. Baird, U. S. A., Chairman of the Port Washington American Legion Shoot, Committee, announces that everything is well in readiness for the shoot on Saturday, Sunday, and Monday, August 27, 28, and 29. Colonel Baird's activities in small arms competition qualify him for the position of Chairman of this Committee, and insure an efficient conduct of the shoot.

Last year's shoot will be remembered by those who competed as an extremely successful one, and with the experience of last year, the Committee feels that this year's competition will be one which will firmly establish the shoot as an annual meeting place for the pistol experts of the East.

Legionnaires have been busily preparing for the reception of the competitors. The range, an ideal shooting spot, has been enlarged to handle the teams and individuals more rapidly.

The range is located on Sands Point road, and the road will be well marked with directional signs. In 1936-1937 the men and women tied at 50.0.

Out west he is among the top-notch midget car pilots, although his specialty is big car events. In one of his first appearances at Roosevelt he placed third in a main event.

Golf Events Of Industrials Earn Trophy

A Long Island Industrial Golf Tournament for industries and firms in the counties of Kings, Queens, Nassau and Suffolk will be conducted at Bethpage State Park, during September and October. A team of four men will represent the organizations entering the tournament, with the low gross team score determining the winner. It will be conducted as a round robin tournament with each team meeting all others, but a team losing two matches will be eliminated from further competition.

Model Yachts Compete Aug. 27 At Lake Park

Another in the series of monthly Model Yacht Regattas for boys and girls 18 years of age or less will be held at the sailboat pond at Hempstead Lake State Park tomorrow, Saturday, at 2 p. m. As in the previous regattas, races will be held in 12 separate classes with 5 classes restricted to children 13 years of age or less and the others open to any boy or girl under 18.

Prizes have been provided for first, second and third in each class. All boys and girls owning a model yacht of any size from less than 12 inches up to the big boats of 50 inches or more in length may enter, but all boats must be registered with Eugene Lee, commodore of the Hempstead Lake Junior Model Yacht Club, at least one-half hour before the start of the races.

Legionnaires have been busily preparing for the reception of the competitors. The range, an ideal shooting spot, has been enlarged to handle the teams and individuals more rapidly.

The range is located on Sands Point road, and the road will be well marked with directional signs. In 1936-1937 the men and women tied at 50.0.

'Yock' Called To Quell Rally; Yarotsky Stars With Willow

The veteran George 'Yock' Schwarzenberger was called in to quell a Bethpage rally and the oddtime did so in excellent fashion, permitting the Hicksville nine to take out a 5-4 decision last Sunday afternoon at Bethpage.

Although not credited with the victory, Yock relieved John Hogan in the eighth frame with the tying run on base and proceeded to check the Pagites uprisings. Hogan pitched brilliantly for Hicksville and went into the eighth frame with four strikes, when the fireworks began popping. Charlie Rozzi doubled down the left field foul line to start the rally for Bethpage. Rozzi took first. On the next play, Moroske three wild of third in an attempt to cut down Tom Rozzi and Valenti, was out down scored. Phillips moving all the way to third. Lawlor whiffed for the second out but Phillips advanced and scored Bethpage's fourth run. Rozzi and Valenti were out down at the plate by Lou Milleville's throw.

Yock retired the first two batters in the ninth and then walked Harris and Rozzi on eight pitches. With the tying run on second and the winning margin on first, Schwarzenberger forced Phillips to fly weakly to Milleville in right field to end the ball game.

Yarotsky Stars For Three Innings, neither team could dent the plate but in the fourth Yarotsky pitched over a run on Yarotsky's double, a wild pitch and Curcio's error of McGinnis's grounder. In the sixth Yarotsky again crowned the plate. This time Yarotsky's third career reached first on Tom Rozzi's error, went to second on an infield out and scored when Rozzi doubled over the third base fence.

Hicksville really slapped Ranfic Cerullo in the seventh, and again it was Yarotsky's active bat that led the assault. After four men had gone down, Lou Milleville dropped a grounder into right field. Pubins lifted a towering fly behind short that fell for a hit, sending Milleville to third. Valenti blasted a homer to the back, scoring Milleville. Pubins taking third. Yarotsky then belted a long double, scoring both Pubins and Valenti. Yarotsky walked but Yarotsky was nipped attempting to steal third. Walt Cerullo, younger brother of Ranfic Cerullo, took over mound duties for Bethpage in the last two frames and allowed two hits in his sojourn on the rubber.

Frank Pubins pulled the fielding gun of the day in the third when he went behind third for Curcio's grounder and then threw the fast Flaite out by a step.

ANNUAL HORSE SHOW

Preparations are proceeding at full pace for the Thirty-Sixth Annual Piping Rock Horse Show which will be held at Locust Valley from September 28 to October 1. Entries close on September 17. There is every indication that the 1938 Horse Show will even surpass the extraordinary success achieved during the last two years, which from the standpoint of number of exhibitors, quality of performance, number of subscribers and general public attendance was unprecedented.

HOW SUBSCRIPTIONS COUNT IN CENTRE ISLAND NEWS OPPORTUNITY CLUB CAMPAIGN

Subscription	Price	Votes
One Year	($1)	3,500
Two Years	($2)	10,000
Three Years	($3)	15,000
Four Years	($4)	25,000
Five Years	($5)	50,000

NOTE—The Special Price of $1.00 per year applies to subscriptions given to contestants during the campaign only. After the campaign the regular rate of $2.00 per year will prevail.

CAMPAIGN CONTINUED UNTIL SEPTEMBER 11
Because of the extreme heat which has prevailed for nearly three weeks, and the week of incessant rain which preceded the hot spell, making it impossible for contestants to do themselves justice in obtaining subscriptions, the Opportunity Club Campaign will be extended to Wednesday, September 14, on which date it will positively close. This extra time should enable contestants to obtain hundreds of subscriptions that they otherwise could not obtain in Hicksville, and thousands throughout Nassau County. With such an attractive array of prizes as offered by Centre Island News it seems only just and fair, to both in place of August 31 as formerly announced.

DOUBLE VOTES CONTINUED UNTIL AUGUST 31
In order that each and every contestant may have the same chance to pile up a winning score of votes the Double Vote Offer is extended to August 31. This means that every subscription turned in before 6 P. M. Wednesday, August 31 will count just double the usual number of votes allowed according to the regular schedule. This Double Vote schedule offers New Entrants their last chance to make a flying start in the campaign. A few subscriptions turned in now during the "Double Vote" period would enable a new candidate to overtake the leaders and go high in the race. No candidate in the campaign has such a commanding lead but what say ambitious New Entrants could easily overcome in a few hours earnest effort in selling subscriptions to their friends and neighbors. Opportunity is calling YOU! Don't let it pass you by.

PREPARING FOR SCHOOL

At this season, Nassau County is anticipating the children's return to school. The new school year, though it brings the new wardrobe and other necessities, more important than new clothing is the preparation of the child to meet the physical hazards of the school year.

Boys and girls are closely associated in the school room and despite efforts of school health authorities, expose themselves to each other's germs. Colds, sore throat and other acute infectious diseases are incidental to school life, especially in late fall and winter. Naturally, those children with sturdy bodies are best equipped to withstand attacks by these diseases.

Every child should be protected against diphtheria. This treatment is easily available, inexpensive, is vaccination against diphtheria, tetanus and pertussis. Several weeks elapse from the time diphtheria toxin is given until immunity develops; therefore, this treatment should be given at once.

Frequently, a child is considered ill in his school work, when in reality physical defects are the cause. Defects of vision or hearing may be responsible for falling work, enlarged or diseased tonsils may cause deafness, rheumatism or other disabling conditions may also predispose to accidents. For the above reason, the child should be examined by the school physician. An abnormal condition is vaccination against diphtheria, tetanus and pertussis.

Healthy, clean teeth add enormously to personal appearance, as well as promoting personal health. The child's examination is not complete unless the family dentist is also consulted and such defects as may exist are corrected. If a child is protected against diphtheria, tetanus and pertussis, smallpox, has a clean, healthy nose and throat, good vision and hearing, he is physically equipped to hold his own with other children and to resist infection and resistance against infectious disease germs.

UTILITIES — of municipalities are allowed to make a profit and to use that profit for the benefit of other local taxes, if they so choose.

GRADE CROSSINGS — in the State, and principally Brooklyn and Long Island, are to be eliminated by State order with the railroads paying up to 15 per cent of the elimination costs.

TAXATION — is an intricate subject and elicits some intricate provisions. There is now a declaration that no power of taxation shall ever be suspended, surrendered or contracted away from the State. Undistributed profits shall not be taxed, but all salaries of State employees shall be subject to taxation.

SCHOOL BUSSES — may be provided for children of denominational schools as well as public schools, if the Legislature so decides. This Appeals decision to the contrary.

LEGISLATURE — must require instead of the customary "emergency message" of the governor, a concurrence of local approval, and a statement of facts substantiating the "necessity."

HOME RULE — lets the Legislature act with reference to the property affairs of government of local public entities, provides for two-thirds vote of the Legislature on emergencies and guarantees limited rights of "non-interference" by other matters are included in the propositions to be submitted the voters, such as transit, public utilities, militia, pensions, civil service, Congress, proportional representation, etc. They all emerged from weeks and months of haranguing "harassment" finally taking their place in the folds of the finished document.

PROTECTION TO VILLAGES — The James L. Dowsey, home-rule bill, passed in the closing hours of the convention is said to preserve for all times the identities and functions of villages, towns and cities. Mr. Dowsey, as Nassau's delegate and the chairman of the committee on Counties and Towns, received almost unanimous support for his bill which provides that there shall be no transfer of governmental functions from any political subdivision of a county unless approved in referendum by the majority of the sub-divisions affected. It prevents any law from being enacted without local approval, except a two-thirds vote of the Legislature.

August In The Garden

By C. B. Raymond
As August slips into history, rapid harvesting becomes the most regular job in the vegetable garden. The successful gardener now has a liberal assortment of vegetables ready for use every day, but a few tasks still remain.

August is the month when rainfall may be lacking. Crops are large and are growing rapidly, and a shortage of moisture may harm many of them. A few pails of water or a half-hour with the hose on three or four evenings on a few tender plants or on short rows of other crops may save the entire season's efforts.

Thinning of root crops, if it was not done in June or July, may still be helpful. Thin the carrots, beets, and salady, or other plant, U about two inches apart, the turnips to at least three inches and the turnips to four or five inches. This is the time when weeds are likely to be forgotten. A garden free of weeds is a good start for easy control of weeds next year.

Scout Camp Sounds Last Note of Year

With the last note of the echo of taps fading away in the distance, the last council fire of the 1938 camp season ends at Camp Waugwex, Wading River. This begins the closing of camp for the season. The next morning all the scouts will prepare to depart to their various homes after a happy summer camping in the outdoors. Throughout the season the scouts have worked on their tests, and many of them have risen another step up the scouting ladder. They will go home full of pleasant memories of swimming in the lake, working in the Craft Lodge, the hikes, eating and singing at mess, and seeing the week-long camp out.

This season has been judged one of the best in the history of the camp. Five hundred and forty-four boys attended Waugwex during the season. They came from all over Nassau County and while others came from such places as Oregan, N. Y., Essex County, N. J., Manhattan and Queens Boroughs, New York City. Many of these boys stayed throughout the season while others went home only to return later in the summer.

Saturday evening after the tents have been taken down and put away the camp staff, camping committee, and other guests will assemble in the mess hall for Chief's annual banquet. During the banquet, Chief Covey, and other members of the camping committee will address the camp staff. After the dinner is over some of the staff will depart for their homes and the others will leave sometime during the next day. By the end of the next day the camping grounds are deserted only echoing the things that have happened during the summer.

"Featherless" chicks, developed through breeding, will be exhibited at the New York State Fair, August 23-September 10, by the Cornell poultry department. New York state's sour cherry crop is estimated at 25 per cent less than last year's crop. The apple crop, compared with 1937, is expected to be 36 per cent less.

Would You Like To Substitute Ten Years from Your Looks?

By MILLICENT MILLS

"It's the way you feel that keeps you young," is a common enough saying, but going back a bit there's a question that pops up and that is: what makes you feel that way?

In the first place you can't let yourself slump, either mentally or physically. Both your mind and your body have to be alert and the older you grow the more particular you must be not to follow the line of least resistance by giving up all exercise, eating what you like and abandoning yourself to mental coma. The girl who was beautiful but dumb had the wit to preserve her physical attributes, and as a result she is fat and fatuous at forty.

If you feel young and look young when you're not, you'll have gone a long way toward possessing the key to youth. But to do this your muscles must have kept their pistons, your blood must be rich with elements that feed your tissues so as to keep your skin soft and blooming, your eyes bright and your hair attractive.

This means that exercise is a big item and you can go back to your childhood, get out your jumping rope and discover it can do you lots of good even though you find it isn't quite so much fun as it was then. The whir of the arms pulls up the muscles of the waist and breast and the jumping tends to reduce the legs and hips. And certainly it will make you more agile than you've been in years.

Just as with childhood exercise, childhood foods help preserve the characteristics of youth and it is believed now that the actually increase longevity in addition to warding off appearances of old age. These foods are "protective foods" and they are milk, green leafy vegetables, fruit and eggs.

A few simple rules should be considered by the woman of forty as a way to improve her general health and ignite the spirit of energetic youth which makes her and her feet years younger than she is.

Gunners Get 15 Days More For Hunting

The Biological Survey has announced it would increase by fifteen days the hunting season this fall on ducks and other migratory fowl. The season will start that much earlier on ducks, geese, and other migratory fowl. This will allow a forty-five-day season instead of the thirty days permitted the last three years.

The earlier and longer hunting was authorized in an order approved by the President and Henry A. Wallace Secretary of Agriculture, and based upon a recent investigation of waterfowl conditions.

The order prescribed the following seasons for ducks, geese, jack-snipe and coot:

Intermediate zone (including Connecticut, Delaware, Massachusetts, New Jersey, New York, Long Island, Pennsylvania and Long Island.) October 15 to November 28. The order also increased the number of ducks allowed to the hunters' possession daily to two bags of ten birds each, instead of one bag of ten birds.

The bureau also announced that hunters would be able to shoot a few canvasback, ruddy, redhead, and bufflehead ducks which had been fully protected the last two years. It said that three of one of those species, or three in the aggregate of the species, could be shot in one day, and twice that amount would be permitted in hunter's possession.
