Yevoli Wants Cleanup, Not Building On Dumps

A major environmental bill introduced in Albany by Assemblyman Lewis J. Yevoli (D-Old Bethpage) that would ban garbage disposal operations on superfund sites easily passed the Assembly (2/14/88). Yevoli termed the legislation "vital to the safety of our states' residents and a safeguard against future environmental disasters." The measure would prohibit the construction of solid waste disposal facilities on sites designated by federal or state agencies as hazardous.

More than 1,000 toxic waste sites have been identified in New York State of which 248 are considered "serious enough to pose a threat to public health. Assemblyman Yevoli said, "There are 20 known hazardous sites in Nassau and 19 in Suffolk. The Town of Oyster Bay's landfill at Old Bethpage tops the list as the worst site in the state, with other privately owned industrial sites and the town's former Syosset landfill scheduled for testing and clean up under the "superfund" statute.

Oyster Bay officials are seeking permission to construct an incinerator capable of burning more than 1,000 tons of garbage daily on its Old Bethpage landfill, a move that has been vigorously opposed by Yevoli, the Plainview Water District Commissioners, civic groups, school board officials, land environmental organizations. Yevoli said, "Sits like this have to be completely cleansed of toxic substances before the chemicals in the ground spread any further and ultimately enter the public water supply. Building a major garbage disposal plant on such sites can only cause havoc with the existing contamination that will seriously endanger clean-up plans and the public's health. The first priority has to be the removal of all chemical contamination and other action is irresponsible."

Assemblyman Yevoli's bill still has to gain passage in the State Senate, however the state lawmaker is hopeful that legislators in that house follow the Assembly's lead. Yevoli concluded, "This important measure affects the entire state, it sends a clear message to the owners of these dangerous sites -- until the site has not been thoroughly cleaned up, you will not be allowed to build projects that will jeopardize remediation procedures and public safety."

Editor's Notebook

With tax preparation time upon us a disquieting survey by the IRS makes one wonder about the democratic spirit of the U.S. According to the IRS taxpayers are apt to get the wrong answer to one of every four tax questions they telephone to the Internal Revenue Service. Even correct replies may not be complete.

"We are obviously not satisfied with answering only three out of four questions correctly," IRS Commissioner Lawrence B. Gibbs said in reporting the results of a test of his employees. He questioned the validity of a separate survey by the General Accounting Office, which found even less chance of a correct answer.

GAO, an arm of Congress, made 224 calls to IRS telephone "assistors" and got the correct answer to only 61 percent of the technical tax questions asked; 57 percent of the answers were complete and 4 percent were accurate but incomplete.

The final paragraphs of this news item released by the Associated Press says "No matter the source of advice on filling out a tax return, the taxpayer has the responsibility to see that the return is correct. Even if the IRS makes a mistake in its advice, a taxpayer can be subject to a penalty and interest for underpaying."

Is it not the time to flood the IRS with protests that if the government cannot officially interpret its own tax law then it cannot hold individuals responsible? The logic of this is so apparent that one wonders why it has to be said at all.

Stamps By Mail P.O. Option

Did you know you can buy postage stamps and stamped envelopes by mail and have your letter carrier deliver them to you?

The stamps by mail program of the U.S. Postal Service is a service for people who are unable to get to the post office to purchase stamps during regular business hours.

"The stamps by mail order form comes with its own postage-free envelope and may be obtained from most letter carriers or from your local post office," says Roger Nienaber, General Manager/Postmaster, Hicksville Division. "Customer service and convenience is our goal with this service enhancement. We want to make purchasing postage easier for our customers and stamps by mail is just one way to do so."

"Customers can also purchase stamps via vending equipment in the outer lobbies of most post offices or free standing convenience centers," Nienaber says.

You can order stamps by mail for 22-cent stamps in books of 20 for $4.40 each, rolls of 100 or 500 for $22 or $110, respectively; and sheets of 50 commemoratives for $11. Stamped 22-cent envelopes -- both letter and business size -- also may be ordered, at $13.50 for quantities of 50.

The form and an attached return label must be filled out with the customer's name and address. The order form must be completed with the items, quantities and costs, and the total cost of the order. The postage-free envelope then is addressed with the city, state and ZIP code of the local postmaster.

A personal check or postal money order payable to "U.S. Postal Service" or "Postmaster" for the amount of the order must accompany each order.

The completed order form and payment may be given to the customer's letter carrier or dropped in any collection box.

Stamp orders normally are delivered to the customer within three working days. There is no charge for the service beyond the normal cost of the stamps or stamped envelopes.

Letters

To The Editor:

Imagine being awakened in the middle of the night by a prowler in your home. You awaken your spouse, and quietly tell her to call the police. As she dials, you head downstairs to investigate the noise. As you begin your descent, the prowler surprises you on the stairs. You struggle, and he falls down the stairs landing in such a way that he shatters his ankle. The rest of the household is awakened and you wait together for the police who arrive within seconds.

After due process, the prowler is convicted of burglary and sentenced. He begins to serve his time in a state penal facility. Normal life resumes at your house. Justice has been served. The criminal got his just desserts. You saved the family from being robbed of its cherished possessions, and all has ended well.

Not quite.

Because of a loophole inadvertently created in New York State's Comparative Negligence Statutes, the prowler whose ankle was shattered in your house is now suing you because he has lost full use of his right foot. According to his lawyer, the prowler will now walk with a limp for the rest of his life, and they think that because the injury occurred on your property while you struggled to protect your home and family, you should have to compensate the intruder for his loss.

The point is simple. Under current law in New York, you can be robbed twice; once during the actual commission of the crime, and a second time in a civil suit should you injure the perpetrator by trying to resist his illegal action.

Assuming the best case scenario comes to pass, and you win the lawsuit the prowler has filed against you, your courtroom appearances have cost you time away from work, your attorney expects to be paid for conducting a brilliant defense on your behalf, and the stress you've been through as a result of the suit has the family longing for a vacation you can now ill afford to take.

Is there something wrong with this picture?

A majority of the members of the New York State Senate think so. For each of the past three years, the Senate Judiciary Committee has reported my bill to bar criminals from suing their victims to the full Senate, where for the past two years it has been approved. (This year's Senate, vote has not as yet been taken, but precedent suggests a third vote for passage will be forthcoming).

Unfortunately, the Crime Victim's and Good Samaritan's Tort liability bill has not had a similarly ringing endorsement in the State Assembly.

Last year, after a good deal of prodding, the bill was reported from the Assembly Judiciary Committee, but never made it to the Assembly Calendar for a vote by the full Assembly. As a result, for another year, New Yorkers who defended themselves against attempted rape, sodomy, robbery, kidnapping, burglary or arson left themselves open for a lawsuit even if their attacker was convicted of the crime.

Under current law, the choices are clear in New York State, either become a passive crime victim, or risk losing your life savings in a civil suit if you decide you'd rather not allow some thug to rob or rape you. The majority of the membership of the New York State Senate agrees that the law must be changed so that criminals receive punishment for their crimes not profits from their victims.

If you agree, let your Assembly representative know that this year, you want Assembly Bill #2599 passed in the Assembly and signed into law by the Governor, and take a minute to write to the man who runs the Assembly to serve notice that criminals must be barred from suing their victims. Write to:

Honorable Mel Miller
Office of the Speaker
Room 932
Legislative Office Building
Albany, N.Y. 12248

Without passage of this bill, even if the criminals are taken off to prison, they can still take you to the cleaners.

Sincerely,

Richard E. Schermerhorn
Member of Senate, N.Y.

Petersen Scores For Road Runners

Pat Petersen was the featured speaker at the February 16, meeting of the Plainview-Old Bethpage Road Runners Club, and he certainly didn't disappoint the audience.

Pat gave an interesting and informative talk on the world of big-time marathon running that he has been thrust into in recent years, his experiences in last year's New York City Marathon, and his prospects for the Olympic Marathon Trials in New Jersey on April 24 and -- hopefully -- for the Olympic Marathon in Seoul, Korea, this October.

Pat was frank and to the point about the Olympic Trials. Although he hasn't yet decided whether he'll set the pace, he guarantees that he will make sure that the pace is an "honest" one, and that "nobody will get a free ride."

POBRR joins the rest of the Long Island running community in wishing Pat Petersen the best of luck in New Jersey -- and in Korea!

Lenten Services at St. Paul's

Ash Wednesday marked the beginning of the 40-day long period of spiritual preparation we call Lent. These 40 days allow us the opportunity to get ready for the momentous events of Holy Week - Palm Sunday, when Jesus entered the city of Jerusalem as the humble King of Kings and Lord of Lords; Good Friday, the day of His crucifixion and death; and the most glorious day of all, Easter, when Jesus won the battle over death and rose from the grave.

Each Wednesday during Lent, special Lenten services are held at St. Paul Lutheran Church, 449 Stewart Avenue, Bethpage, beginning at 7:30 p.m. These services are centered around the theme of "Glory in the Cross: Fruits of the Spirit from the Passion of Our Lord." The fruits of the Spirit focused on are gentleness, patience, faithfulness, goodness, self-control, peace and kindness.

On Sundays at the 10:30 a.m. worship service, we look at the various "nails" that actually crucified our Lord - pride, infidelity, envy, hatred, indecision, cruelty, and the worst "nail" of all - our sinfulness. Though our sins nailed Him to the cross, Jesus willingly and lovingly died for each one of us that we may live eternally in Him and through Him.

You are cordially invited to join Christ's body of believers at St. Paul's as we prepare for the glory to come, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Prayer and Praise Service At St. Paul's

On Sunday, February 28, at 7 p.m., St. Paul Lutheran Church, Bethpage, will again celebrate an informal service of prayer and praise.

As we observe this season of Lent, the congregation of believers at St. Paul's invites you to join us in praising our Lord Jesus Christ, who most graciously and lovingly sacrificed His life to save each and every one of us. He paid the price for our sin through His death on the cross so that through Him we may receive eternal life. To Him be the praise as we live in the knowledge of His grace and love for us!

Won't you join us in this spirit-lifting event. St. Paul Lutheran Church is located at 449 Stewart Avenue (just south of the railroad tracks) in Bethpage. For more information, please call the church office at 931-8262.

Christ's Last Words At Services

The Senior Choir at the United Methodist Church of Hicksville, Old Country Road at Nelson Avenue, Hicksville, will present "The Seven Last Words of Christ Upon the Cross" by Heinrich Schutz, on Sunday, March 20, at the 9:15 and 11 a.m. worship services. The choir will be accompanied by a string ensemble and organ. Dr. Prentice E. Whitlock is Minister of Music at the church.

Fork Laners McDonald's Lunch

Friday, February 5, proved to be an exciting lunch hour at Fork Lane. A special hamburger lunch was brought in to the children from the brand new McDonald's on South Broadway, Hicksville. Our hamburgers, extra pickles and ketchup were all packed up in special "to go" boxes, ready and waiting when we arrived to pick them up. Efficiency and friendliness was a top priority given to us by this McDonald's crew. The hamburgers were great!

The children obviously enjoyed their special lunch, since most boys and girls ordered 2-3 each. It was a most successful event, and I am sure we will do it again...maybe cheeseburgers next time.

Thanks to South Broadway McDonald's for a super lunch, and thanks to all our lunch room moms who volunteer their time, time and time again to Fork Lane children.

3rd Graders - Danny Losito and Robert Burns, Jason Schwartz with moms Vera Faulkner and Gail Schwartz.

6th Graders with their lunch.

Irish Travelogue For St. Pat's Day

To help get in the mood for St. Patrick's Day, the Bethpage Public Library will present, "Ireland: A Multi-Media Travelogue" on Friday, March 11, at 8 p.m. Marty Gavrin, a former ABC network cameraman and audio technician will present a beautiful slide-tape production with narration and music of a trip across Ireland.

Enjoy Bunratty Castle and its Folk Village, Knapogue Castle and Crannog Ring Fort. See Blarney Castle, where a kiss on the Blarney Stone gives the gift of gab; the Rock of Cashel, where Brian Boru was crowned King in 1014 A.D.; and the tower of monastic Glendalough, a refuge from roaming Norsemen. In Dublin's "fair city," visit Trinity College, St. Patrick's Cathedral, and see the Georgian doors of 18th century Dublin. Traveling on, enjoy the magnificent coastal views of Kerry and the towering cliffs of Moher.

Admission to the program is free.

Police Speaker At Comm. Council

The next meeting of the Hicksville Community Council will be held on Thursday, March 3, at 8 P.M. at the Hicksville Public Library - Community Room.

Last month's program, represented by the Nassau County Police Department, was very successful in informing the public on Crime Prevention. Because of the popularity of the topic, Police Officer Pam Olsen of the Community Projects Bureau will return this month and discuss "Crimes Against Women." Although the lecture is designed for women, the discussion on personal safety in the home, in the car and on the street will also prove helpful to the men in the audience.

This meeting will also host a second guest speaker, Mr. Bernard B. Steinlauf of Montauk Tax. With all the recent changes in the tax laws and tax forms, this year's return should prove to be more complicated than ever. Mr. Steinlauf will discuss these changes and will be happy to answer any questions.

Councilman Thomas L. Clark will be in attendance to conduct a town forum in which he will provide an update of what is happening in our town and will also be available for comments from the public.

The meeting starts promptly at 8 P.M. and all Hicksville residents are welcomed to attend. Refreshments will be served.

Alice Varisano, a tax specialist in the Long Island Office of Coopers & Lybrand, received an award on January 14, from the Suffolk Chapter of the New York State Society of CPAs for her leadership in the Society's Second Annual State-Wide Blood Drive. Mrs. Varisano coordinated the blood drive in Suffolk County. The enclosed photo shows Suffolk Chapter President Gerald M. Flynn, Jr. presenting the award to Mrs. Varisano. Alice Varisano lives in Syosset with her husband, Vincent and their two children.

Cocaine can make you blind.

Cocaine fools your brain.

When you first use it, you may feel more alert, more confident, more sociable, more in control of your life.

In reality, of course, nothing has changed. But to your brain, the feeling seems real.

From euphoria...

You want to experience it again. So you do some more coke.

Once more, you like the effects. It's a very clean high. It doesn't really feel like you're drugged. Only this time, you notice you don't feel so good when you come down. You're confused, edgy, anxious, even depressed.

Fortunately, that's easy to fix. At least for the next 20 minutes or so. All it takes is another few lines, or a few more hits on the pipe.

You're discovering one of the things that makes cocaine so dangerous.

It compels you to keep on using it. (Given unlimited access, laboratory monkeys take cocaine until they have seizures and die.)

If you keep experimenting with cocaine, quite soon you may feel you need it just to function well. To perform better at work, to cope with stress, to escape depression, just to have a good time at a party or a concert.

Compulsion is now definitely addiction. And there's worse to come.

To paranoia...

Like speed, cocaine makes you talk a lot and sleep a little. You can't sit still. You have difficulty concentrating and remembering. You feel aggressive and suspicious towards people. You don't want to eat very much. You become uninterested in sex.

You stop caring how you look or how you feel. You become paranoid. You may feel people are persecuting you, and you may have an intense fear that the police are waiting to arrest you. (Not surprising, since cocaine is illegal.)

You may have hallucinations. Because coke heightens your senses, they may seem terrifyingly real.

As one woman overdosed, she heard laughter nearby and a voice that said, "I've got you now." So many people have been totally convinced that bugs were crawling on or out of their skin, that the hallucination has a nickname: the coke bugs.

Especially if you've been smoking cocaine, you may become violent, or feel suicidal.

To psychosis...

When coke gets you really strung out, you may turn to other drugs to slow down. Particularly downers like alcohol, tranquilizers, marijuana and heroin. (A speedball—heroin and cocaine—is what killed John Belushi.)

If you saw your doctor now and he didn't know you were using coke, he'd probably diagnose you as a manic-depressive.

Literally, you're crazy.

But you know what's truly frightening? Despite everything that's happening to you, even now, you may still feel totally in control.

That's the drug talking.

Cocaine really does make you blind to reality. And with what's known about it today, you probably have to be something else to start using coke in the first place.

Dumb.

THE OFFICE CAT

By Gabby Tabby

THE TOWN of Oyster Bay is slated to receive $591,355 in state money to improve the safety, efficiency and structural quality of town streets, highways and bridges according to a report issued by State Sen. John Dunne's office. THE NEW president of Nassau County Medical Center Board, C. Pat Meyers, is a former resident of Syosset and Woodbury. Mrs. Meyers is the wife of bandleader, Herb Meyers, and has been active in many local Syosset endeavors. IRS is now suggesting that residents get the help of Volunteer Income Tax Assistance to help figure out the new "simplified" tax forms. For the location of the nearest office phone 222-1131. WE WERE unhappy last November when Syosset Judge Harold Fertig was defeated in a bid for election to District court. That job paid $84,000. He has now been appointed to the Court of Claims in Brooklyn at a salary of $95,000. Good things are often disguised. THE REPUBLICANS are making sure if it comes to it that they will not have to raise taxes next election in the county. Instead of opting to reduce the sales tax they are going to stash $24.5 million surplus in a fund used to offset any increases. You can bet that the unions will be eyeing this fund. THE CRIME report is published each week to acquaint residents of where crime is taking place in the area and as an aid in the Neighborhood Watch Program. Anyone seeing suspicious activity should phone 911. BURGLARS pried a rear door of a house on Essex Rd., Bethpage on Feb. 11. They entered and stole jewelry and cash. THE FRONT window of Classic Carburetors, 611 Old Country Rd., Plainview was broken on Feb. 12. Burglars entered and stole carburetors. A TV and VCR were stolen from a house at Woodland Drive, Old Bethpage on Feb. 13. A rear window was pried open to gain entry. CASH and liquor were stolen from Twigs Bar and Grill, 620 S. Oyster Bay Rd., Hicksville on Feb. 19. The means of entry is unknown. BURGLARS broke into the Wellon residence, 90 W. Cherry St., Hicksville on Feb. 23. Entry was through the front door. Sporting goods were stolen. A SIDE WINDOW of the DiProperzio residence, 4 Elf Rd., Syosset, was broken by burglars on Feb. 18. They entered and stole assorted jewelry. A VCR, camera and TV were stolen from the Nacheff home, 3 Pond Drive, Syosset, on Feb. 21. The front door was pried open to gain entry. TWO box truck trailers, fully loaded, were stolen from Conservative Warehouse, 105 Amfesco Drive, Plainview on Feb. 14. The trailers were found by police abandoned on a LIE rest area. $250,000 worth of cosmetics had been unloaded and stolen from one trailer and the other was still fully loaded. That's all the news for now...G.T.

News From Plainview Library

On Friday, March 4, at 1 p.m., the Plainview-Old Bethpage library will be presenting Barbara Krupit leading a discussion entitled Insights into Current Issues.

Barbara Krupit will discuss what's making the headlines that day, whether it be local, national or international news. You can discuss the issues and share your views.

On Tuesday, March 8, at 8 p.m., the Plainview-Old Bethpage library will be presenting Barbara Krupit in a book discussion/review. The book to be discussed is entitled The House of the Spirits by Isabel Allende.

"The House of the Spirits" is the magnificent epic of the Trueba family—their loves, their ambitions, their spiritual quests, their relations with one another, and their participation in the history of their times, a history that becomes destiny and overtakes them all.

On Wednesday, March 9, at 7:30 p.m., the Plainview-Old Bethpage library will be holding a Library Board of Trustees Budget Review meeting.

Book collecting is a wonderful hobby and can be very rewarding. Books are all around us and looking for the "special books" is very exciting.

Dr. Abraham Blinderman, author, lecturer and book collector will discuss "The Pains and Pleasures of Book Collecting" on Thursday, March 10, at 8 p.m.

On Sunday, March 13, at 3 p.m., the Plainview-Old Bethpage library will be showing the feature film entitled "Crimes of the Heart", starring Diane Keaton, Jessica Lange, Sissy Spacek and Sam Shepard.

A run of bad days seem to plague three beautiful daughters, Lenny (Diane Keaton), eldest of the three sisters and painfully aware of such on her birthday seems to specialize in bad days. Babe (Sissy Spacek) is the dizziest of the sisters and who was having a bad day when she shot her husband, the State Senator. Meg (Jessica Lange) is the sister who gave up nightclub singing to pursue a Hollywood career and "way too many men," has her bad days too! Beth Henley has created an eccentric screenplay of engaging comedy of tribulation.

This film runs 105 minutes and is rated PG-13.

On Monday, March 14, at 1 p.m., the Plainview-Old Bethpage library will be presenting Barbara Krupit in a book discussion/review. The book to be discussed is entitled "Momo" by Michael Ende.

They call her Momo, a mysterious orphan in a city without a name...She lives in the ruins of an ancient amphitheater, and she has a very special gift: an extraordinary ability to listen. It is as if her very presence enables people to discover the truth within themselves and open the floodgates of their imagination. So, while Momo's material possessions are few, she is rich in the love of her many friends and the laughter of the children who surround her.

What better time is there to discuss "A Taste of Ireland" than on Thursday, March 17, at 8 p.m.

Andrea Doherty will be our expert for the afternoon. Come and see a display of Irish China, table linens, crystal and accessories. Learn about Irish products and Irish life. Preparation of Irish tea and Trifle will be discussed and samples for tasting will be available.

On Saturday, March 19, at 8:15 p.m., the Plainview-Old Bethpage library will be presenting Dave Sear Folk Singer.

Mr. Sear is a dynamic folk singer connecting to his audience with humor, excitement and passion through folk songs of our times and times gone by.

With banjo and twelve string guitar ringing, Dave Sear blends old foot-stomping mountain square dance tunes with new songs about sailors, women, children, animals, mermaids, aging and nature into a life-affirming concert that leaves an audience young or old with a good feeling toward life.

This performance is in cooperation with the Town of Oyster Bay, Cultural Performing Arts Division.

The "Island Senior Citizens Orchestra" under the direction of Paul Rudoff will appear at the Plainview-Old Bethpage library on Sunday, March 20, at 3 p.m.

The orchestra was founded in 1971 and is a full symphonic ensemble performing the classical repertoire and providing a background for aspiring and talented performers.

Tickets are not required.

On Wednesday, March 23, at 7:30 p.m., the Plainview-Old Bethpage library will be holding a Board of Trustees Meeting in the staff room.

The public is invited.

Callopie, performing at the Plainview-Old Bethpage library on Friday, March 25, at 8:15 p.m., is a four member Renaissance Band with guest artist Frederic Hand, lutenist.

Callopie performs on a total of 40 different instruments including Krumphorn, Sackbuts, Recorders, Cornettos, Shawms, Viola da Gamma, Vielle, Gemshorn and others. The program will include pieces from the 13th to 17th centuries.

Australia's answer to Indiana Jones makes his two-listed debut in "Crocodile Dundee!"

Paul Hogan stars as the brawny, larger-than-life adventurer, Mike "Crocodile" Dundee. He's an expert tracker and hunter whose exploits have made him a legend. An enterprising American reporter (Linda Kozlowski) tracks down the elusive "Crocodile" and lures him to the wilds of New York City. None of Dundee's Australian exploits could have prepared him for the thrills, romance and fun he encounters in the big city!

The film runs 98 minutes and is rated PG-13.

The library is located at 999 Old Country Road in Plainview, opposite the Morton Village Shopping Center - 938-0077.

MOMMY... DON'T

Don't take drugs unless your doctor, who knows you're pregnant, prescribes them. And... get early and regular prenatal care.

March of Dimes

There's one thing wrong with those cash back offers on new cars.

You don't get to choose the car.

These days, auto buyers are often confronted with seemingly irresistible discounts and overly generous cash back offers. The problem is, a lot of these incentives don't apply to all makes and models. And rarely to the one you're most interested in.

On the other hand, consider the options and features available from The Bank of New York.

First of all, we offer one of the lowest variable rates around. Only 9.4%*. Whether you're a customer or not.

Variable Rate
Auto Loan

And that rate applies to any new car you'd like to buy. Not just the car they'd like to sell.

And importantly, your regular monthly payments will never go up. If interest rates rise or fall during the term of the loan we'll simply make the adjustment at the end of your loan term.

To take advantage of our variable rate auto loan just visit one of our 190 convenient branches. Or for an even faster response, call Action Phone at 1-800-942-1784 (out-of-state, call 914-684-5514 collect). Call by 2:30 P.M. on any business day and in most cases you'll have an answer by 5:00 P.M.
