Kiwanis Gets Scout Update

Service to and for the youth of the community is one of the objectives of Kiwanis. The Hicksville Kiwanis Club has demonstrated this over a period of many years as a Sponsor of Hicksville's Boy Scouts of America Troop 64.

At the June 29, Kiwanis meeting, Troop 64 Scoutmaster Jack Russell brought three of his Scouts with him to help bring the Kiwanis Club membership up to date on the progress and accomplishments of one of the oldest Boy Scout Troops in Hicksville. The Scoutmaster and the Scouts, (who happened to be the Troop's newest Eagle Scout, another potential Eagle, and the youngest Tenderfoot in the Troop) provided pertinent statistics relative to the Troop's current size, activities and awards, as well as some goals for the future. Part of the future goals was the continuing service to the community, which resulted in the offering and acceptance of suggestions which were mutually agreeable, and will be put into practise shortly.

Nassau County Executive Thomas S. Gulotta, second from right, proclaimed the week of July 7 through July 16 as "Electrical Safety week" in the County of Nassau.

Grumman Wins Navy Contract

New York legislators Representative Norman F. Lent and Senator Alfonse D'Amato announced that the U.S. Department of the Navy has awarded the Grumman Corporation of Bethpage a $115,586,802 contract for 12 EA-6B Prowler aircraft for FY-88.

The Prowler's sophisticated computer-controlled electronic surveillance system enables the aircraft to avoid detection by jamming enemy radar.

In addition, the U.S. Department of the Air Force has awarded Grumman a $25 million contract for a booster surveillance and tracking system for Phase IIIA of the Strategic Defense Initiative (SDI) program.

"These contracts will help ensure Grumman's competitive edge as a leader in Aerospace technology. I'm also pleased because the business is crucial to Long Island's defense sub-contractors and our economy. The contract awards are recognition of Grumman's significant contributions to our national defense, and I'll be doing whatever I can to ensure that tradition for the future," Lent said.

UJA To Open Local Office

UJA-Federation will open a Long Island office in January in the Plainview-Hicksville-Jericho area. The move will consolidate the organization's fund-raising activities on Long Island.

The decision to open the new facility was approved June 22, by the UJA-Federation Board of Directors. The UJA-Federation office in Commack, which now serves Suffolk County, will be consolidated with the new one.

The new office will serve the growing Jewish population of Long Island, which now stands at 450,000 among a general population of nearly 5 million.

The report recommended the Plainview-Hicksville-Jericho area because of its central location and proximity to major highway arteries, as well as to Long Island Rail Road services.

The new site will house 60 UJA-Federation employees and will also be used for organizational meetings.

Police To Enforce Lawn Sprinkle Law

Enforcement of lawn sprinkling regulations will begin in earnest this weekend as Nassau County Police start giving out summonses on-the-spot to violators.

Until now in this lawn tending season, police sent warning notices to householders and business people where illegal sprinkling was noted. With compliance lagging, a heat wave already in the weather record book, and a strain placed on the water supply, enforcement is to begin immediately.

A Nassau County ordinance restricts lawn sprinkling to alternate days. Those with odd number addresses can water the grass on odd numbered days. Even addresses can water on the even days. There may be no use of water for lawn sprinkling between the hours of 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. on any day.

Police patrol officers will issue appearance tickets where and when they find offenses. A first time guilty situation carries a $50 fine. For a second offense, the fine is $100 and a third is $250. All subsequent fines are $500 each.

Anyone who has a question about the water sprinkling regulations for their area should contact their water supplier.

Musical Series At POB Park

A performance by the Concert Pops of Long Island under the baton of conductor Dean Karahalis will highlight the second week of "Music Under the Stars" for Plainview-Old Bethpage Community Park District residents, according to Town Councilman Douglas J. Hynes.

The program will be held on Sunday, July 24, at the community park beginning at 8:15 p.m. In the event of rain, the performance will be held in the auditorium of Kennedy High School, Kennedy Drive, Plainview.

"The Concert Pops of Long Island is well known to Oyster Bay audiences having performed for several years in the 'Music Under the Stars' series," Hynes said. "Founded in 1982, the Concert Pops has a repertoire that blends popular classics with Broadway show tunes."

Hynes noted that the program is being sponsored by the Cultural and Performing Arts (CAPA) Division of the Town's Department of Community and Youth Services and co-sponsored by the Town of Oyster Bay Art Council, Inc.

July 4th Celebrations

Hicksville's veterans posts and auxiliaries were well represented in the Annual Town of Oyster Bay Fourth of July celebration at Town Hall. For this Bicentennial of the Ratification of the U.S. Constitution, James Foote of Sea Cliff gave another of his remarkable impersonations of President Theodore Roosevelt in costume and speech, posing later with his delighted "constituents."

Three Receive Honors At Lutheran

Kerri Dolena, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dolena, Frederick Ruff, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ruff and Steven Anderson, the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Anderson all of Hicksville, received special recognition at the Annual Honors Banquet of Long Island Lutheran Jr/Sr High School held June 20, at the Swan Club in Roslyn.

Kerri Dolena was presented the Co-Curricular Award for her outstanding achievement in H.A.R.T.

Frederick Ruff was presented the Co-Curricular Award for his outstanding achievement in Back Stage Club.

Steven Anderson received the Major Contribution Primus Award for his outstanding achievement in Co-curricular activities.

Long Island Lutheran Jr/Sr High School is a co-educational college preparatory school located in Brookville and has been serving the Long Island community since 1960. Students from 50 different school districts make up the selected student body of 400. More information about Lutheran High and possible openings in grade 7 through 12, may be obtained by calling 626-1700.

Hicksville Swimmers Begin Season

Hicksville swimmers, who are members of the Long Island Express Swim Team, began the summer season with the Invitational Meet held at Hofstra University. In this meet Lorna and Kristin Mund competed successfully against some 2000 entries from the surrounding areas.

Kristin won the 100 butterfly with a Junior National qualifying time. She placed third in the 200 fly, fourth in the 400 free and fifth in the 200 IM. Lorna won both the 100 and 200 backstroke.

At the Middle Atlantic Invitational held at Foxcatcher Farms in Pennsylvania the next week, Lorna won a silver in the 100 backstroke. The swimmers are being coached by Robbie Orloff.

July Mineral Sale At Museum

Summer mineral and rock festivals will continue at the Hicksville Gregory Museum on Saturday and Sunday, July 16 and 17. July will be a follow-up to June's "Treasures of the Earth" festival at the museum which pleased many visitors. It will be another opportunity for rock hounds and collectors of beautiful natural specimens to strike good bargains. Excellent buys for hobbyists of all ages and expertise are being offered, specimens from various private collections donated to the museum for its fund-raising purposes.

The July Mineral Festival will take place from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on July 16, and from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on July 17. There is no admission to the festival or to the Gregory Museum, which will be open to visitors. This is also an excellent opportunity to see the over 50 rock and mineral exhibits of Long Island's leading geological and mineralogical museum. The new, enlarged fluorescent mineral exhibit is especially striking. For those rock hounds and pebble pups interested in having their collection items identified, museum Director Joseph Vajdag and Curator Don Curran will lend their expertise.

The Gregory Museum is located in the Old Hicksville Courthouse, a building in the National Register of Historic Buildings. With its surviving old-time Nassau jailhouse and exhibit of old Hicksville photos, the 1895 landmark is an added attraction to visitors. The Gregory Museum's home is one block south of Woodbury Road and Bay Avenue, at Heitz Place, directly across from the Knights of Columbus Hall.

Nassau County Executive Thomas S. Gulotta, right, presented a citation to Community Service Award recipient Pamela Rappaport in recognition of her outstanding service to her community. Pamela was presented with the Community Service Award at a ceremony which was recently held at Bethpage High School.

Plainview Youth Earns Special Honor

Andreas Matern, son of Mr. and Mrs. Matern of Plainview, received special recognition at the Annual Honors Banquet of Long Island Lutheran Jr./Sr. High School held June 20 at the Swan Club in Roslyn. Andreas was presented the Co-Curricular Award for his outstanding achievement in Drama, the Athletic MVP Award in Soccer, the Departmental Award in Computer and Mathematics and the Major Contribution Primus Award for his Co-Curricular Activities. Andreas was also named Valedictorian of his class.

Lutheran High graduate Andreas Matern, right, received the Computer Department Award from Luthi Chairperson Steve Lewer.

The 1988 graduating High School students who won the Hicksville Kiwanis Club Scholarship and Community Service Awards, along with their proud parents, were the guests of Kiwanis at the club's luncheon meeting on June 29.

This year's three Kiwanis Scholarship Awards were publicized as being available to graduating high school students who were Hicksville residents, regardless of which school they were graduating from. The winners selected by the Kiwanis Scholarship Committee were: Mr. Michael W. Hoops from Hicksville High School, won the Dr. Charles J. Masek Memorial Scholarship and will attend Boston University; Mr. Christopher Blanco from Chaminade High School won a Kiwanis Scholarship and will attend the University of Notre Dame; Mr. Daniel Kilfoil from Hicksville High School won a Kiwanis Scholarship and will attend St. John's University.

The Kiwanis Community Service Award, known as The Frank Chlumsky Memorial Award, was established by the family and friends of the late Frank Chlumsky, and was to be awarded to one or two Hicksville High School graduates each year who most closely emulated the community spirit and activity of "Uncle Frank." The family turned the funds over to the Hicksville Kiwanis Club to administer as stipulated.

Among some of "Uncle Frank's" achievements were his work with the Salvation Army and sending Christmas gifts to Hicksville Servicemen. President of Hicksville Kiwanis Club, Lieutenant Governor of the L.I. North Division of Kiwanis, President of the Hicksville School Board, Councilman Town of Oyster Bay, Christmas program coordinator for the Jones Institute, etc. This year recipients of this award were Miss Anne Calise and Mr. David Ching.

Editor's Notebook

The essence of democracy is the right to vote. And it is through this unalienable right that every citizen of the United States is invested with immense power. Through voting, we have the power to choose our leaders - our laws and - our way of life.

And yet it is quite clear that voter participation in this half of the twentieth century is at an all time low. According to a recent report issued by Congressional Quarterly Magazine, out of the 26 major industrial democracies in the world, the United States ranks dead last in terms of participation in the electoral process. In addition, an analysis of voter turnout by the Committee for the Study of the American Electorate estimates that in the 1988 General Election 90 million eligible Americans will fail to cast their vote for the next President of the United States.

Consider the following statistics for New York State and for our metropolitan neighbor, New York City:

- Only 52 percent of the population of New York voted in the 1984 presidential election. This translates into 47.3 percent for black, 37.5 for Hispanic and 60.8 for the white populations exercising their right to vote.

- Some 14 million people are eligible to vote in New York State, yet, only 7.9 million are registered to vote (49 percent of the eligible blacks, 29 percent of the eligible Hispanics and 60 percent of the eligible whites).

- In New York City alone, currently 1.2 million eligible black and Hispanic voters are unregistered - more unregistered blacks than in the Southern states combined!

Here are two commonly held fallacies about voting:

- Many people think that if they didn't vote in the primary, then they can't vote in the general election November 8. This is not true. But each person needs to be registered to vote before the election.

- Many people think if they register to vote, they'll automatically be called for jury duty. This is not true. In fact, prospective jurors are drawn from many other sources.

This year, more than 185 million Americans will be eligible to vote in the November election. It would be wonderful if all of them knew that their participation does matter, and that their votes can make a difference.

Here are some important dates to remember:

September 15 - Primary Election Day (53 days 'til the election)

October 11 - Last day for registration by mail (27 days 'til the election)

October 15 - Last day for registration in person (23 days 'til the election)

November 1 - Last day to submit absentee ballot application by mail (6 days 'til the election)

November 8 - Election Day

It was the late Civil Rights activist Dr. Martin Luther King who said, "The most important step a person can take is that short walk to the ballot box."

Chamber Holds Final Meeting

At the Board of Directors Meeting of the Hicksville Chamber of Commerce, and also at the general June Meeting, Marcus Ramirez, the President announced a 40% increase in membership during this past year.

The Chamber also received a report on the Scholarship Fund drive, which allowed this organization to make a presentation of a scholarship for community service for the current year. This presentation was made to James Maloney, 14 Walters Avenue, Hicksville, on behalf of the Chamber, at a Scholarship Presentation Event held by Kiwanis of Hicksville.

Mr. Ramirez also informed the membership that litter baskets will be installed along Broadway in Hicksville during the month of July. This has been a long standing project of the Chamber, and it is hoped that this will be an improvement in cleaning up the area in general.

The Chamber does not hold regular meetings during the summer, but it is customary to kick off the new season with an Installation Dinner Dance on September 20. Vice President, Ivan Czipott is the chairman of the Committee for planning this gala event. More will be announced on this affair at a later time.

Friendship Club Enjoys History

An unusual luncheon meeting program was afforded the members of the Hicksville Friendship Club recently. The June meeting of this senior citizens ladies club, which gathers at the United Methodist Church, featured a slide photo-lecture on the "History of Hicksville's Religious Groups" presented by Gregory Museum historian Richard Evers.

The club members were amazed and heartened to learn of the range and development of Hicksville's over 17 churches and temples. As portrayed by Mr. Evers, Hicksville-Plainview and Jericho's spiritual journey begins with Algonquian sacred meeting grounds at Manetto Hill, moves through the splendid Quaker experience at Jericho and embraces the coming of the great wave of orthodoxy of the Hicksville village settlement: Lutherans, Roman Catholics, the diversity of Protestant and Reform, the coming of the orthodox and reform versions of Judaism, and the churches reflecting the ongoing ethnic evolution of the community: Ukrainian Catholic, Jehovah's Witness, St. Mark's Coptic, the Greek Orthodox Church, Chinese Abundant Life Christian Church, and the little but fervent Church at Hicksville.

Typical of the reactions to this warm survey of Hicksville's "varieties of religious experience" were the comment of the Friendship Club's secretary, Mildred R. Nelson, in a later letter to historian Richard Evers: "...So many of our members grew up in Hicksville, as you know, so the slides and narration brought back many pleasant memories...It was so interesting and informative."

Reflections On Priestly Changes

By Richard Evers

Parishioners of Hicksville's St. Ignatius Loyola R.C. Church were both proud and sad this past month as they learned of the departure of their much-esteemed curate, Father Thomas Costa. His many parish friends were proud and happy over Bishop John McGann's appointment of Father Tom as the new co-pastor of St. John of God Church in Central Islip, but they felt a real sense of loss as well.

Father Costa is young as Catholic pastors go (he was ordained in 1978) but he brings to his priestly ministry and leadership a great warmth in human relations, much initiative, and a versatility of abilities. In the all too brief four years he served Hicksville's oldest Roman Catholic Church, St. Ignatius, he offered himself to his people in so many ways that will be remembered. There was his dignity and youthful enthusiasm; his brave enterprise and inspiration in leadership; his compassion and understanding in his service to AIDS victims and their families; his patriotism in ready participation in community public ceremonies, his pride in his uniform of a serving U.S. Air Force Chaplain; his eloquence in homily, with the gift for analogy his warm family life prompts; the linguistic gift at his Bishop's command (his regular Masses in Italian for St. Bridget's of Westbury); and his strong leadership in innovative fund-raising, such as the recent Annual St. Ignatius summer bazaars he sparked for several years (Father Tom making Italian zeppoli is a joyous memory, indeed). For many, there will be a special remembrance of this beloved priest: his love for the Blessed Virgin, whose help and protection he evokes so admirably at the close of all his Masses.

Following his last Mass at St. Ignatius Church, this past month, Father Costa enjoyed a reception with his many friends in the new parochial school cafeteria. The entire community of Hicksville's loss is certainly Central Islip's gain, but his friends and admirers realize the imperative need which requires the wisest possible assignment of priestly talents in these Post-Councilar years of diminished vocations and enormous secular social influences.

Father Costa's departure came in a month of changes at St. Ignatius. His replacement is the Reverend Robert Giuntini, transferred from St. Patrick's in Huntington. A young priest with a bright wit, cordiality and many of the physical attributes of his predecessor, Father Giuntini remarked on being mistaken for Father Costa when he and this writer first met: "I told Father Costa, you and I look so much alike, the folks will think there's been a mistake, and you're still here."

Another new arrival, an experienced hand at the parish administrative tiller at St. Ignatius is the Rev. Edward L. Tarrant. Father Tarrant comes to Hicksville from St. James parish in Setauket. He will relieve Pastor Frederick Harrer of stressful responsibilities, so the veteran churchman may recover more readily from a recent illness. Father Harrer's managerial talents, his progressive, scholarly

"It's not my zeppoli but have a slice," Father Thomas Costa seems to be saying as he enjoys St. Ignatius Church "good-bye" reception for him marking his lamented transfer to Central Islip.

Expressing their esteem and appreciation to Father Tom Costa at his reception are St. Ignatius Loyola parishioners Mary and Charles Cunningham.

The intensity of his flock's affection for Father Tom Costa is obvious in John Zavattieri's handclasp and final words of thanks and "auvoir, Father."

outlooks and Christian humanism, as well as a most gifted literary talent have been at the service of St. Ignatius since January, 1969 - a long tenure in a difficult generation of his church's history. A respite for this devoted, modest, sensitive leader is well earned. His flock welcome Father Tarrant and his vigor and experience.

Also leaving St. Ignatius Church after serving for much of the eighties as a Sunday "helping priest" is Dominican Father James Movna, chaplain of the Amityville retirement home for the Sisters of St. Dominic, who has requested pastoral duty as diocesan priest. Father Movna will be remembered among other graces bestowed, for thought-stirring sermons and for a passion for honest, loving human and family relationships. His bearded countenance, honesty, and consideration created for many who heard him, an image of the mendicant friars of the bygone, great ages of faith. This writer has known these St. Ignatius priests as a lector and commentator at their Mass during their full sojourns in Hicksville and is thankful for the spirituality, vision and hope they have brought to the old Gothic edifice on Broadway.

Hicksville INN Receives Donation

The Board of Directors of Hicksville I.N.N. have announced a significant donation of food and material from the Agway Corporation. The Board received word from Tony Bouse of the Agway group, who is a generous supporter of this local effort. The Board of Directors has expressed their appreciation for the gift.

The I.N.N., which is presently operating at Holy Trinity Episcopal Church in Hicksville, is also pleased that the renovation work on the floors of the Parish Hall, where daily meals are served to the homeless and hungry, is now completed. The floors have been refinished and the charitable work has been resumed.

Nassau County Executive Thomas S. Gulotta, center, presented a County of Nassau citation to Barbara Anderson of Plainview, President of the Mid-Island Senior Center on behalf of position to which she was recently installed.

Also present was Rachel Stalano, who is also from Plainview, Director of the Mid-Island Senior Center, in recognition of the outstanding services that the Center provides.

Nassau County Executive Thomas S. Gulotta, left, attended the awards assembly of Hicksville High School which was recently held. County Executive Gulotta presented a Citation to Community Service Award recipient Jessica Garnets in recognition of her outstanding service to her community.

Also present were Jessica's parents, Iona and Jim Garnets.

Suburban Art League Installation

ECC Members Receive TOB Welcome

Hicksville Pioneers Beat Bay Shore 5-0

By Joe Matz

The '77 Pioneers easily defeated the Bayshore Blast 5-0 in an away game held on June 25. The Pioneers came for a victory and went away happy with their progress this season, a 5-2-3 league record. Counting their wins and first place trophies in the Comack Tournament and the Chase Cup Championship, it becomes a 13-2-5 season record. The credit goes to the excellent goal-keepers on the team--Jonathan Schwartz, Peter Titone, and Greg Latini. The coaches, Rich Isley, Steve Florio, and Phil Caputo should be justly proud of the team's accomplishments.

Now for the game--special correspondent Joe Matz--since the referee was none other than your favorite sports writer, Jay Schwartz...

From the beginning the Pioneers controlled not only the ball, but the game as well. Phillip Caputo took a nice shot on goal early, but it was wide. The defense was weak and remained unorganized. Maradona subbed for Caputo late in the second half, but left to attend a preliminary game for the World Cup. Right after a corner kick from Joe Florio put the ball in front, Jonathan Schwartz volleyed the ball with his left leg for the first goal. Franz Beckenbauer protested that Schwartz was offside but the referee gave him a yellow card for skipping "GO" and not collecting $200. Jonathan Kanuck crossed the ball to Tommy Coffey and he drilled it past the goalie for goal number two. Moments later Joseph Florio sent a corner kick across and Tommy Coffey took a shot for score number three.

In the second half, Peter Titone left the goal and Jonathan Schwartz took his place. Peter had made a few saves in the first half and now played forward. The defense of Werchenski, Isley and Matz had done their usual fine job. Schwartz got into action right away as he made a pretty save from a corner kick, keeping the shut-out going. Peter Titone and John Kanuck worked the ball well, sent it down for Greg Latini, and it was passed to Tommy Coffey for a fourth goal. Later on Robert Isley passed a long ball to Danny Wolchok for a long shot and goal number five. Russell Brousseau was a big support in the midfield and was subbed late in the game for Latini.

Most valuable player for today's game was Tommy Coffey, for the second hat trick in the Pioneers' history.

Trivia question: Who has the first? Answer - read backwards: raey tsal kohelow ynnad. Enjoy summer, parents!

Hicksville Legion Post Wins Nassau Banner

At the June Nassau County American Legion Convention, the Charles Wagner Post 421 of Hicksville was judged to be the Banner Award Post of Nassau's Third Division. This honor recognized Post 421's outstanding Americanism and Child Welfare programs as well as the post's strong contributions to the Nassau Legion work of veterans' rehabilitation. Retiring Commander Harry Christo who led the Hicksville Legion for two terms and his post officers and committee chairpersons had a prominent two tables at the Convention Ball held at the Andrew Thatcher Post clubhouse in Valley Stream.

Ballroom enthusiasts, Helen and Steve Wladyka of the Charles Wagner Post enjoy the recent Nassau County American Legion Concert Ball.

"Al, he wants to take our picture!" Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cinnotti at the Nassau County American Legion Convention Ball.

Outgoing Nassau County American Legion Commander Dick Hochbreckner, right, is gleeful as he braces new Commander Herbert Blauert for a year of endless meetings and social affairs. The duo were part of a Nassau Convention Ball in the Valley Stream host post.

That distinguished Marine veteran, Frank Goverale and long-time lady acquaintance, Anne Evers, enjoyed the Legion Convention Ball while Dick was off somewhere photographing the gala for posterity.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kerrian slow down for the cameraman. They were part of the Hicksville Legion Post living it up at the Convention Ball after being designated a "banner" Post for services to disabled veterans, to children and youth.
